Ironton Grand Jury Finds No Perjury in DiSalle Fuss

9 Massillon Gambling Joints To Be Closed

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Action to permanently close nine alleged gambling places will be started soon, Solicitor Richard F. Maier announced.

Permanent padlock orders will be sought from Stark County Common Pleas Court against eight of the places. The Ninth, Jessie Toles Billiards, will be forced to move from city-owned property, Maier said.

Arrests have been made in all the establishments at one time or another for possession of gambling devices.

Only one, George Elum of the Elum Music Co., has been tried. He pleaded guilty to possession of gambling equipment and was fined $500 in Massillon Municipal Court. A 60-day jail sentence was suspended.

Places named in the padlock petitions besides Elum's are Schneider's Cigar Store; Meinhart's Cigar Store, which was bombed in May; and Obie's Lunch, Dragomir's Smoke Shop, Mike Cigar's Cigar Store, Boston Cigar Store and the T-B Specialty Co.

Meanwhile, in Canton, Prosecutor Norman J. Putman was critical of the method used by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in ordering a special grand jury investigation of gambling and vice in the county.

"It's unfortunate that failure to contact local authorities, together with the careless handling of newspaper publicity from Columbus, has created an unjust inference. The state is discrediting the work already done here.

"This pattern of conduct is inconsistent with the statement that this investigation (special grand jury) is non-political," he added.

However, he said, "We'll give them 100 per cent cooperation."

Far-Reaching Law Changes Election Setup for Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio election laws underwent some far-reaching changes in the Democratic-controlled Legislature.

A new act permits straight-line party voting on machines now used in nearly a fourth of Ohio's 88 more populous counties. Many of them are party strongholds.

Republican opponents claimed that Democrats pushed through the change to help keep, and possibly extend, election gains that included control of the Legislature for the first time in a decade.

They warned that previous election changes for party advantage backfired on Republicans and might do so for Democrats in the future.

But the Legislature went ahead with the new law that allows all candidates of the same party to be lined up on the machines so that strictly partisan voters can mark a straight ticket by pulling down all the levers on a line....

Candidates' names were rotated on machines so that they appeared on both lines, requiring voters to hunt out their preferences to cast a party-line ballot.

That was done to conform with the office-type ballot approved by voters in 1949. The ballot lists candidates by the offices they seek and requires rotation of names. The change eliminated the practice of listing candidates under party emblems and made it impossible to vote for them all with a single "x" mark.

A more recent change decreed four-year terms for elected state officials. A Republican Legislature placed that issue before voters in 1956 when the party was riding high.

But last year, the first time state candidates ran for four-year terms, Democrats won most of the offices and control of the Legislature as well.

Another new law enacted by the 103rd General Assembly permits voters to reregister by mail for a two-year period. Democrat sponsors tried unsuccessfully to make mail registrations good for four years.

Voters who fail to cast ballots during a two-year period currently must go to election boards to reregister in person in counties requiring it.

Another change will permit out-of-state voters moving into Ohio to ballot for president and vice president, starting in 1960, if they have lived at least 40 days in their precinct. Present law requires a year's residence in the state.

The new law gives effect to a constitutional amendment adopted in 1957. The change required the Legislature to specify residence requirements.

Newcomers cannot vote in Ohio for president and vice president if they still are eligible to ballot in their home state. Nor can they after a full year's residence in Ohio.

Future ballots will look slightly different in general elections for state officials as a result of legislative action.

Candidates for attorney general, now listed in the sixth slot below governor, will appear in the third slot. Secretary of state candidates, formerly in third position, will be listed fifth. Treasurer candidates will go from fifth to sixth place.

The new lineup will be: governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, auditor, secretary of state and treasurer. The present list reads: Governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer and attorney general.

Other new laws permit election boards to print clearly marked sample ballots, a practice often indulged in without statutory authority; allow use of a new punch-type voting machine, and make bank money orders or cashier's checks acceptable as deposits posted for vote recounts.

The new voting machine, about a third the size of conventional models, was invented by Martin Coyle, Butler County Republican chairman. He credited Democrat leaders with helping him win approval of the device, now nearly ready for mass production.

Punched ballots from the machine can be counted by tabulating devices to speed election returns, Coyle said.

Ex-Model Tied To Slaying

Police Say She Aided Doctor Kill Wife

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP) — Carole Tregoff, snarled in what officials call a web of conflicting statements, is accused with her lover of murdering his socialite wife.

Police say the shapely ex-model incriminated herself by trying to shield her paramour.

Miss Tregoff, 22, and her lover, Dr. Bernard Finch, are charged with murder in the July 18 shooting of the wealthy surgeon's 33-year-old wife, Barbara.

Miss Tregoff was arrested in court Wednesday shortly after she sobbingly admitted at Dr. Finch's preliminary hearing that she loved him and had sexual relations with the 41-year-old surgeon.

The hearing continues today.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Fred N. Whichello said Miss Tregoff "tripped herself up" when she testified Tuesday about a leather case found near the Finch home after the shooting. Investigators described the case as a "do-it-yourself murder kit." It contained a hypodermic needle, sedatives, bullets, a knife and rope.

Miss Tregoff surprised authorities by testifying she took the case from her car at the Finch home when Dr. Finch asked her to get a flashlight. She identified some of the contents as household goods the doctor bought for her and said Finch carried weapons whenever he had narcotics in his car.

"She read in the newspapers about the murder kit and decided she had to account for it," Whichello said. "In the previous questioning, the bag never was mentioned.

"It is quite apparent now, when you take the entire picture of evidence and the relationship between the pair, that her testimony shows an active participation and aiding and abetting in this murder."

He received a reprimand and was ordered to forfeit $100 a month in pay for a year.

This Muggy Weather Is To Continue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A midsummer spell of muggy weather kept a sticky grip on most areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast today.

No immediate general relief from the hot and humid weather appeared.

Some relief in the form of thunderstorms came to sections from eastern Colorado into the northern Midwest.

The day's forecast for most areas in the swelter belt indicated a repeat performance of Wednesday's oppressive heat and humidity with temperatures in the 80s and 90s. The Weather Bureau's comfort index classified the weather as "acutely miserable."

The warm, moist air from the Gulf covering nearly all sections east of the Rockies during the night made for restless sleep. Lows in the mid-70s were reported as far north as the upper Great Lakes region and southern New England.

Negro Heros Widow Gets $8,000 in Gifts

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The widow of a Negro who drowned trying to save two white boys has received more than $8,000 in gifts.

The death of Floyd Reed, a porter, had left his widow and two small daughters destitute.

A few weeks ago Reed was fishing in the Mississippi River when he saw two boys clinging to a log, which had been caught in a strong current. He jumped in the river and swam toward the shouting, frightened boys. He never reached them.

The boys were saved by another man.

12 Pro-Hoffa Men Arrested In Cincinnati

New Officers Sign Warrants Following Fight in Union Hall

CINCINNATI (AP) — A dozen members of a pro-Hoffa faction of strife-torn Teamsters Union Local 100 were arrested here early today after they had seized control of the union headquarters following a brawling fist-fight.

All 12 were arrested on warrants obtained by officers of the local charging trespassing and disorderly conduct.

The officers were elected last winter on a platform in opposition to Teamsters International President James R. Hoffa.

The rival "rank and file group" has been seeking to form a new local.

The fight started Wednesday night when the officers of the local sought to postpone a hearing on charges against one of the rebels. The 16-man executive committee finally left the building after being told by the rebels to resign or get out.

Police, called to the scene, made the arrests only after the officers of the local had obtained the warrants.

Lt. Col. Robert Wells, in charge of the police detachment, ordered the union headquarters closed shortly after 1 a.m. He said a police guard would remain on duty but that the regular officers of the local would be allowed to open up for business as usual today unless there is more violence.

The 12 arrested were released on bond pending Police Court action this morning.

Robert Morris, co-chairman of the "rank and file" committee, told newsmen he had notified Hoffa's secretary by telephone that:

"We are in the hall. We have thrown out our corrupt officers. We are begging for help from the International or from the monitors."

Otto Frobe, secretary-treasurer of the local; Marshall Tucker, business agent, and John Curtsinger, trustee, suffered cuts and bruises in the fight.

The brawling started when R. Y. Culbertson, vice president of the local, announced a hearing for Willis Walts, co-chairman of the "rank and file" committee, was being postponed. Walts has been charged with fostering secession from the local, violation of membership oath and other misconduct.

Walts and his companions objected to a delay in the hearing and the fist swinging started.

The "rank and file" group locked the executive committee in their meeting rooms and then notified them to resign or get out. The executive committee left.

The rebels took over and could be heard singing and laughing after the executive committee left.

After the ruckus subsided Frobe issued a statement which said:

"The vicious attacks and beatings of the officers of Local 100 demonstrated again the type of hoodlumism represented by the Cincinnati pro-Hoffa Teamsters. Ever since they were beaten by a vote of the membership in a secret ballot election they have been trying to get control of Cincinnati truck drivers through terror and abuse.

"This has ranged from threats to kill and maim, a phony rate charge, deliberate breaking up of meetings, calling of unauthorized walkouts and now actual physical beatings. These are exactly the type of vicious tactics which have been exposed by the McClellan committee."

$600,000 Left to Dog, $1 to Mate, 0 to Son

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A San Francisco matron's will left $600,000 as a memorial fund to her dead dog, a dollar to her estranged husband and nothing to her son.

Mrs. Amy Roger Bachman, who died Jan. 14 at 75, left the $600,000 to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to set up a fund in honor of Bingo, a terrier.

Her will, appraised Wednesday, left $1 to her estranged husband, Arthur, and nothing to her son, Arthur Jr., 57.

2 Pro Baseball Players Suspended in 'Fix' Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two members of the Chattanooga baseball club were suspended—one for life—today as the result of charges that gamblers had attempted to fix games in the Southern Assn.

George M. Trautman, boss of the minor leagues, announced that Jesse Levan had been banned for life for acting as liaison man for a gambler seeking to get players to throw Chattanooga games.

The second player, Waldo Gonzales, was suspended for a year, effective July 3, 1959, for attempting to obstruct the investigation of the case.

Trautman said other players were questioned but no punitive action was taken against them.

Meanwhile, the Dallas Times Herald quoted a former Southern Assn. player as saying that the Chattanooga Park is "nothing but a gambling casino."

An Atlanta writer, Bob Christian, quoted another source as saying that several if not all the clubs in the association cooperated with gamblers during the last three seasons.

Christian wrote that agreements between players and gamblers usually did not affect the outcome of games but dealt with such trivialities as "fouling off pitches." He was asked today to tell his story to a Georgia grand jury.

One player reportedly was offered $700 if he could foul off three straight pitches.

Levan and Gonzales, the latter an ex-Texas leaguer, previously had been suspended by Charlie Hurth, president of the Southern Assn., for failing to report an attempted bribe.

Trautman said his investigation had developed no proof that a game or games actually had been thrown. He said several players were guilty of not having reported attempts to have them fix games.

He listed pitcher James Heise, Thomas McAvoy and Samuel Weeks as others involved.

Trautman's office gave this report:

Heise testified that Levan approached him on two occasions, once before the start of the 1959 season and another time during the season, inquiring as to whether he (Heise) was interested in making extra money by delivering easy-to-hit pitches to the other team.

Heise said he informed Levan on both occasions that he would have no part in the program. Heise said he declined to report the incident to the proper authorities because he had spurned the offer and didn't feel he was involved.

Gonzales' suspension was the result of not cooperating with authorities seeking to learn the truth of the matter, Trautman said.

2 Accidents Investigated By Lawmen

Circleville Police and the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department investigated two accidents in this area yesterday and today.

Four were injured in the two crashes, none seriously. All were taken to Berger Hospital.

The accident investigated by police was at 2:30 p. m. yesterday at Main and Pickaway Sts. The cars were driven by Yvonne Cockrell, 18, of 230 Logan St., and Josephine C. Darby, 51, Lawrenceburg, Ind.

Timothy E. Cockrell, 1, a passenger, suffered a bump on the head. The drivers were not injured.

THE COCKRELL car was headed north on Pickaway St. and the Darby car was going east on Main St. Both drivers told Sgt. Turney Ross that the light was changing and that they thought they had the right of way.

Sgt. Ross said both cars were slightly damaged. Mrs. Darby was cited for having no valid operator's license.

At 9:50 a. m. today cars operated by Sara J. Huffines, 37, Route 4, Circleville and Lenna Buskirk, 45, Columbus, collided at Main and Mound Sts. near the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mrs. Buskirk told Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover that she stopped at the railroad when she heard the crossing bell ringing. Mrs. Huffines, driving behind the Buskirk car, said her brakes failed, allowing her auto to crash into the rear of the vehicle ahead.

Mrs. Buskirk suffered a sprained neck and Mrs. Huffines a laceration of the scalp. Thomas Huffines, 14, a passenger, received a deep laceration of the upper lip and several broken teeth.

Dputy Hoover said the Huffines auto was extensively damaged.

Ohioans Complete Long Tractor Trek

SEASIDE, Ore. (AP) — The James Clark family of Marion, Ohio, wet the wheels of their tractor in the surf at this Oregon coastal resort Wednesday—just as they did 24 days and 4,000 miles back in the Atlantic at Ocean City N. J.

The Clarks decided they wanted to see the country at a slow pace and picked the 32-mile-an-hour speed of the tractor. A trailer containing the family belongings was hitched behind.

The Clarks, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, 11-year-old Larry and 8-year-old Janice, have averaged 200 miles a day.

Mediators Seek Steel Settlement

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal mediators continued efforts today to break the steel strike deadlock. They also kept an eye on the aluminum industry where scattered strike threats remain.

Contract extensions have been agreed upon in the bulk of the aluminum industry, but contracts expire Friday midnight in some segments where no extension has been made.

Federal mediators met with leaders of the United Steelworkers of America Wednesday and scheduled a session with industry leaders today.

Governor Hints Special Panel To Be Called

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — The Lawrence County Grand Jury investigating testimony given in a Municipal Court hearing last April reported today it found no evidence of perjury.

Ohio's governor, instigator of the investigation, was "startled" by the finding and immediately hinted the state may summon a special grand jury to review the case.

The jury completed 3½ days of examining 21 witnesses.

The decision of the May Grand Jury, which had been recalled into special session to make the investigation, was given by M. B. Edmundson, foreman. He issued no other statement.

The investigation grew out of allegations by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle that Orville Elias, a former state employe, had identified himself as another state official in the Municipal Court hearing. Elias and other Ironton officials denied this, and later Elias filed a $400,000 libel suit against the governor.

The April hearing resulted in dismissal of a charge that former State Sen. Oakley C. Collins failed to obtain a building permit for an apartment - office at nearby Hanging Rock. Elias had been an employe of Collins, and is a former employe of the Department of Industrial Relations.

J. Harold Read, an assistant attorney general who was here when the jury reported, said he had no comment. The special session had been requested by Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

Informed of the jury's finding, Gov. DiSalle commented:

"That's not a surprise. I'm startled."

Asked if he plans to ask McElroy to convene a special grand jury, DiSalle replied:

"I already have asked him. I think they plan to go ahead with it, probably in September."

McElroy issued this carefully worded statement in Columbus:

"The findings of the grand jury that no perjury was committed will be given total, careful study by myself and staff. If further action is indicated, it will be promptly taken."

Nixon Visits Siberian Mine

Veep Urges Russians To Hear His Address

SVERDLOVSK, Soviet Union, (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon took a long look today at heavy industry in Siberia, visiting a huge tube rolling mill and a copper mine near this city of 600,000 on the east slopes of the Ural Mountains.

High spots of the nearly 11-hour schedule were tours through the Pervouralsk mill and the Degtyarsk mine. Nixon also took a long drive through the area surrounding Sverdlovsk, a center for the production of strategic metals, armaments, chemicals and heavy machinery.

Despite the hecklers who dogged his footsteps Wednesday in Novosibirsk and again in Sverdlovsk, Nixon said his welcome in the Soviet Union has been warmer than he expected, especially in Siberia, which has been a closed region to most foreign visitors. Thousands turned out in Novosibirsk and Sverdlovsk to applaud him.

Nixon canceled a dinner in his honor Wednesday night to work on a speech he will give from Moscow Saturday night over the Soviet radio and television network. In it he will urge that Siberia be opened up to more foreign visitors and to more ideas from outside.

Nixon told hecklers here in Sverdlovsk that Western radio broadcasts to them are being jammed and that they do not know the truth. The Soviets ought to have the right to hear both sides, he said, urging them to listen to his broadcast.

George M. Trautman, boss of the minor leagues, announced that Jesse Levan had been banned for life for acting as liaison man for a gambler seeking to get players to throw Chattanooga games.

The second player, Waldo Gonzales, was suspended for a year, effective July 3, 1959, for attempting to obstruct the investigation of the case.

Trautman said other players were questioned but no punitive action was taken against them.

Meanwhile, the Dallas Times Herald quoted a former Southern Assn. player as saying that the Chattanooga Park is "nothing but a gambling casino."

An Atlanta writer, Bob Christian, quoted another source as saying that several if not all the clubs in the association cooperated with gamblers during the last three seasons.

Christian wrote that agreements between players and gamblers usually did not affect the outcome of games but dealt with such trivialities as "fouling off pitches." He was asked today to tell his story to a Georgia grand jury.

One player reportedly was offered $700 if he could foul off three straight pitches.

Levan and Gonzales, the latter an ex-Texas leaguer, previously had been suspended by Charlie Hurth, president of the Southern Assn., for failing to report an attempted bribe.

Trautman said his investigation had developed no proof that a game or games actually had been thrown. He said several players were guilty of not having reported attempts to have them fix games.

He listed pitcher James Heise, Thomas McAvoy and Samuel Weeks as others involved.

Trautman's office gave this report:

Heise testified that Levan approached him on two occasions, once before the start of the 1959 season and another time during the season, inquiring as to whether he (Heise) was interested in making extra money by delivering easy-to-hit pitches to the other team.

Heise said he informed Levan on both occasions that he would have no part in the program. Heise said he declined to report the incident to the proper authorities because he had spurned the offer and didn't feel he was involved.

Gonzales' suspension was the result of not cooperating with authorities seeking to learn the truth of the matter, Trautman said.

Governor Hints Special Panel To Be Called

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — The Lawrence County Grand Jury investigating testimony given in a Municipal Court hearing last April reported today it found no evidence of perjury.

Ohio's governor, instigator of the investigation, was "startled" by the finding and immediately hinted the state may summon a special grand jury to review the case.

The jury completed 3½ days of examining 21 witnesses.

The decision of the May Grand Jury, which had been recalled into special session to make the investigation, was given by M. B. Edmundson, foreman. He issued no other statement.

The investigation grew out of allegations by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle that Orville Elias, a former state employe, had identified himself as another state official in the Municipal Court hearing. Elias and other Ironton officials denied this, and later Elias filed a $400,000 libel suit against the governor.

The April hearing resulted in dismissal of a charge that former State Sen. Oakley C. Collins failed to obtain a building permit for an apartment - office at nearby Hanging Rock. Elias had been an employe of Collins, and is a former employe of the Department of Industrial Relations.

J. Harold Read, an assistant attorney general who was here when the jury reported, said he had no comment. The special session had been requested by Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

Informed of the jury's finding, Gov. DiSalle commented:

"That's not a surprise. I'm startled."

Asked if he plans to ask McElroy to convene a special grand jury, DiSalle replied:

"I already have asked him. I think they plan to go ahead with it, probably in September."

McElroy issued this carefully worded statement in Columbus:

"The findings of the grand jury that no perjury was committed will be given total, careful study by myself and staff. If further action is indicated, it will be promptly taken."

2 Accidents Investigated By Lawmen

Circleville Police and the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department investigated two accidents in this area yesterday and today.

Four were injured in the two crashes, none seriously. All were taken to Berger Hospital.

The accident investigated by police was at 2:30 p. m. yesterday at Main and Pickaway Sts. The cars were driven by Yvonne Cockrell, 18, of 230 Logan St., and Josephine C. Darby, 51, Lawrenceburg, Ind.

Timothy E. Cockrell, 1, a passenger, suffered a bump on the head. The drivers were not injured.

* * *

THE COCKRELL car was headed north on Pickaway St. and the Darby car was going east on Main St. Both drivers told Sgt. Turney Ross that the light was changing and that they thought they had the right of way.

Sgt. Ross said both cars were slightly damaged. Mrs. Darby was cited for having no valid operator's license.

At 9:50 a. m. today cars operated by Sara J. Huffines, 37, Route 4, Circleville and Lenna Buskirk, 45, Columbus, collided at Main and Mound Sts. near the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mrs. Buskirk told Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover that she stopped at the railroad when she heard the crossing bell ringing. Mrs. Huffines, driving behind the Buskirk car, said her brakes failed, allowing her auto to crash into the rear of the vehicle ahead.

Mrs. Buskirk suffered a sprained neck and Mrs. Huffines a laceration of the scalp. Thomas Huffines, 14, a passenger, received a deep laceration of the upper lip and several broken teeth.

Dputy Hoover said the Huffines auto was extensively damaged.

Nixon Visits Siberian Mine

Veep Urges Russians To Hear His Address

SVERDLOVSK, Soviet Union, (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon took a long look today at heavy industry in Siberia, visiting a huge tube rolling mill and a copper mine near this city of 600,000 on the east slopes of the Ural Mountains.

High spots of the nearly 11-hour schedule were tours through the Pervouralsk mill and the Degtyarsk mine. Nixon also took a long drive through the area surrounding Sverdlovsk, a center for the production of strategic metals, armaments, chemicals and heavy machinery.

Despite the hecklers who dogged his footsteps Wednesday in Novosibirsk and again in Sverdlovsk, Nixon said his welcome in the Soviet Union has been warmer than he expected, especially in Siberia, which has been a closed region to most foreign visitors. Thousands turned out in Novosibirsk and Sverdlovsk to applaud him.

Nixon canceled a dinner in his honor Wednesday night to work on a speech he will give from Moscow Saturday night over the Soviet radio and television network. In it he will urge that Siberia be opened up to more foreign visitors and to more ideas from outside.

Nixon told hecklers here in Sverdlovsk that Western radio broadcasts to them are being jammed and that they do not know the truth. The Soviets ought to have the right to hear both sides, he said, urging them to listen to his broadcast.

Ex-Model Tied To Slaying

Police Say She Aided Doctor Kill Wife

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP) — Carole Tregoff, snarled in what officials call a web of conflicting statements, is accused with her lover of murdering his socialite wife.

Police say the shapely ex-model incriminated herself by trying to shield her paramour.

Miss Tregoff, 22, and her lover, Dr. Bernard Finch, are charged with murder in the July 18 shooting of the wealthy surgeon's 33-year-old wife, Barbara.

Miss Tregoff was arrested in court Wednesday shortly after she sobbingly admitted at Dr. Finch's preliminary hearing that she loved him and had sexual relations with the 41-year-old surgeon.

The hearing continues today.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Fred N. Whichello said Miss Tregoff "tripped herself up" when she testified Tuesday about a leather case found near the Finch home after the shooting. Investigators described the case as a "do-it-yourself murder kit." It contained a hypodermic needle, sedatives, bullets, a knife and rope.

Miss Tregoff surprised authorities by testifying she took the case from her car at the Finch home when Dr. Finch asked her to get a flashlight. She identified some of the contents as household goods the doctor bought for her and said Finch carried weapons whenever he had narcotics in his car.

"She read in the newspapers about the murder kit and decided she had to account for it," Whichello said. "In the previous questioning, the bag never was mentioned.

"It is quite apparent now, when you take the entire picture of evidence and the relationship between the pair, that her testimony shows an active participation and aiding and abetting in this murder."

This Muggy Weather Is To Continue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A midsummer spell of muggy weather kept a sticky grip on most areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast today.

No immediate general relief from the hot and humid weather appeared.

Some relief in the form of thunderstorms came to sections from eastern Colorado into the northern Midwest.

The day's forecast for most areas in the swelter belt indicated a repeat performance of Wednesday's oppressive heat and humidity with temperatures in the 80s and 90s. The Weather Bureau's comfort index classified the weather as "acutely miserable."

The warm, moist air from the Gulf covering nearly all sections east of the Rockies during the night made for restless sleep. Lows in the mid-70s were reported as far north as the upper Great Lakes region and southern New England.

The boys were saved by another man.

The Clarks decided they wanted to see the country at a slow pace and picked the 32-mile-an-hour speed of the tractor. A trailer containing the family belongings was hitched behind.

The Clarks, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, 11-year-old Larry and 8-year-old Janice, have averaged 200 miles a day.

Allies To Ask Long Recess In Deadlocked Geneva Talks

GENEVA (AP) — The Western Allies planned today to ask the Soviet Union to agree to a long recess—beginning next Wednesday—in the Big Four foreign ministers' conference. The Allies obviously hoped that an agreement to renew negotiations would suspend the Soviet threat to West Berlin.

There was no indication Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko would agree to a recess.

There was no expectation on the Western side that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's speech in the Ukraine, made public today, promised any change in the Soviet position that might make it worthwhile to continue negotiations now.

Although Khrushchev called for renewed efforts by the foreign ministers and said the Geneva conference had made progress, he offered no modification of the Soviet demands which the West has rejected.

American officials, after a first study of Khrushchev's speech, made clear they still had no intention of prolonging the conference without major Soviet concessions. And they said Khrushchev is not going to get a summit meeting unless he lifts his threat to West Berlin.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd reportedly would like to persuade his Western allies to agree to a summit conference to follow up the present Big Four meeting. But there presently is no prospect the United States and France will agree that sufficient progress has been achieved here to justify going to the summit.

Barring a sudden turnabout by the U.S.S.R. on some crucial issue in the Berlin negotiations, most Western diplomats now believe the foreign ministers meeting will break up in failure without agreement on either Berlin or a summit gathering.

The Wednesday deadline was set on the initiative of Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, who said he is going to attend the meeting of the Organization of American States opening in Santiago, Chile, Aug. 12 and wants a few days in Washington to prepare for that conference. Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville agreed to his proposal.

Following a long luncheon meeting between Herter and Gromyko, Assistant Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding announced that "Mr. Gromyko and Mr. Herter agreed that we would wind up by Wednesday of next week."

Scar-Faced Avenger Returns To Slash Pretty Housewife

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (AP) — Four years ago a man slipped into a pretty housewife's kitchen and grabbed her as she stood ironing.

Patricia Faye Smith smashed her iron against his face. The man fled, screaming, his face branded.

Two weeks later she received a crudely written note. "I'll get you," it said. For Mrs. Smith it was the beginning of four years of torment.

Once the man appeared again at her home and tried to rape her — but fled when her children came home. Countless times her phone has rung. A man's voice would say: "I'll get you."

Three times the Smiths moved — from one Los Angeles suburb to another. They were beginning to feel secure in their home in Canoga Park.

Then, Wednesday the man returned. Mrs. Smith, 30, recognized him. A long, livid scar stretches from his left eye to his mouth, she said.

She said he forced her into the bathroom of the home, ripped off her blouse, and pulled a penknife. She said he told her: "Now you are going to know what it feels like to be ugly."

She said he slashed her on the ankle twice, then slashed at her shoulders, arms and thighs.

Her oldest son heard her screams and pounded on the locked door. Mrs. Smith said the man smashed her face with his clinched fist and warned: "I'll be back to finish the job."

Police put out an all-points bulletin for the scarred man, whose identity isn't known.

Police reports verified Mrs. Smith's story of years of torment. Officers have been seeking her assailant since the first attack.

Ohio's Hiking Grandma Is Tuckered Out

PENDLETON, Ore. (AP) — Grandma Emma Gatewood is tired.

"I almost have bitten off more than I could chew," said the peppery 71-year-old from Gallipolis, Ohio, as she walked into town Wendesday.

She plans to complete her hike from Independence, Mo., to the Oregon Centennial Exposition in Portland, 213 miles west of here, then rest.

A train of covered wagons that left Independence on April 19 was passed by Mrs. Gatewood, who walked as much as 30 miles a day in the early stages of her trip. The wagons are due here Saturday and they will continue on to Independence, Ore., 60-odd miles south of Portland. But not Grandma Gatewood. Unless she changes her mind. "But if I do, I'll ride."

State's Financial Crisis Is Eased

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's financial crisis has been somewhat eased, says the Department of Taxation.

Excise tax boosts by the DiSalle administration have raised state income by more than 1½ million dollars in June, the department reported.

In just 22 days the two-cents-a-pack hike on cigarettes brought $1,233,000 of the increase. The tax boost was effective June 8.

An extra $58,000 from the tax increase on 3.2 beer, however, was more than offset by $115,000 less received from high-power beer taxes than in the same period last year.

The wagering tax boost brought in the rest of the over-all amount. Effective for 26 days during June, it added $380,000. This tax is on pari-mutuel horserace betting.

The Teays Valley Board of Education studied at its Monday meeting a proposal to sponsor a fire fighting school, which would probably be held at the Ashville Fire Department.

Ed Cummins, chief of the Ashville Fire Department, met with the board to discuss possibilities of sponsoring the school. This school would be under the branch of Trades and Industries Service of the State Department of Education.

The Teays Valley Board would pay costs of the school and be reimbursed by the Ashville Fire Department.

Board members were to decide this week which members would run for the two and four-year term school board seats, which are all up for election this fall.

Robert D. Sultzbach, 44, Springfield, refused to accept the assistant principalship at Walnut Twp He was hired recently by the board for that post and tot each English, mathematics, public speaking and handle some guidance work.

Republic Steel Earnings Top Previous Highs

CLEVELAND (AP) — In sales volume, earnings and production, Republic Steel Corp., the nation's third largest steelmaker, broke all six-month records during the first half of 1959.

Board Chairman Charles M. White reported these first-half figures Wednesday night:

	1959	1958
Net income	$67,089,717	$23,904,602
Per share		$4.28 $1.53
Sales	$784,655,207	$417,228,790

White said the profit per dollar of sales was 8.6 cents in the six months ended June 30, compared with 5.7 cents in the first half of last year.

Records in sales, earnings and production during the first half of this year were attained, White said, "to a major degree as a result of "robbing' business from the third quarter—orders which would ordinarily have been placed, produced and shipped in July and August."

Customers bought in advance, he explained, "to assure themselves adequate steel supplies in the event of a strike."

U.S. Reds Ruled Tied to Kremlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals, in a 2-1 opinion, today upheld a finding by the Subversive Activities Control Board that the U.S. Communist party is dominated by Moscow.

This means that the party, unless today's ruling is reversed, must register with the attorney general as an agency of a foreign power and must file reports of its finances and the names of its members.

The court decision marks another step in a nine-year battle by the government to require the Communist party to register under the 1950 Internal Security Act.

Two previous rulings by the board calling for party registration were returned by the courts for further proceedings.

Allies To Ask Long Recess In Deadlocked Geneva Talks

GENEVA (AP) — The Western Allies planned today to ask the Soviet Union to agree to a long recess—beginning next Wednesday—in the Big Four foreign ministers' conference. The Allies obviously hoped that an agreement to renew negotiations would suspend the Soviet threat to West Berlin.

There was no indication Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko would agree to a recess.

There was no expectation on the Western side that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's speech in the Ukraine, made public today, promised any change in the Soviet position that might make it worthwhile to continue negotiations now.

Although Khrushchev called for renewed efforts by the foreign ministers and said the Geneva conference had made progress, he offered no modification of the Soviet demands which the West has rejected.

American officials, after a first study of Khrushchev's speech, made clear they still had no intention of prolonging the conference without major Soviet concessions. And they said Khrushchev is not going to get a summit meeting unless he lifts his threat to West Berlin.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd reportedly would like to persuade his Western allies to agree to a summit conference to follow up the present Big Four meeting. But there presently is no prospect the United States and France will agree that sufficient progress has been achieved here to justify going to the summit.

Barring a sudden turnabout by the U.S.S.R. on some crucial issue in the Berlin negotiations, most Western diplomats now believe the foreign ministers meeting will break up in failure without agreement on either Berlin or a summit gathering.

The Wednesday deadline was set on the initiative of Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, who said he is going to attend the meeting of the Organization of American States opening in Santiago, Chile, Aug. 12 and wants a few days in Washington to prepare for that conference. Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville agreed to his proposal.

Following a long luncheon meeting between Herter and Gromyko, Assistant Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding announced that "Mr. Gromyko and Mr. Herter agreed that we would wind up by Wednesday of next week."

Scar-Faced Avenger Returns To Slash Pretty Housewife

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (AP) — Four years ago a man slipped into a pretty housewife's kitchen and grabbed her as she stood ironing.

Patricia Faye Smith smashed her iron against his face. The man fled, screaming, his face branded.

Two weeks later she received a crudely written note. "I'll get you," it said. For Mrs. Smith it was the beginning of four years of torment.

Once the man appeared again at her home and tried to rape her — but fled when her children came home. Countless times her phone has rung. A man's voice would say: "I'll get you."

Three times the Smiths moved — from one Los Angeles suburb to another. They were beginning to feel secure in their home in Canoga Park.

Then, Wednesday the man returned. Mrs. Smith, 30, recognized him. A long, livid scar stretches from his left eye to his mouth, she said.

She said he forced her into the bathroom of the home, ripped off her blouse, and pulled a penknife. She said he told her: "Now you are going to know what it feels like to be ugly."

She said he slashed her on the ankle twice, then slashed at her shoulders, arms and thighs.

Her oldest son heard her screams and pounded on the locked door. Mrs. Smith said the man smashed her face with his clinched fist and warned: "I'll be back to finish the job."

Police put out an all-points bulletin for the scarred man, whose identity isn't known.

Police reports verified Mrs. Smith's story of years of torment. Officers have been seeking her assailant since the first attack.

Broken Ankles Treated Here

One person was admitted and four were treated and released from Berger Hospital yesterday. Two of them suffered broken ankles.

Helen Sharp, 39, Amanda, slipped on rock at home and fractured her left ankle Wednesday.

Lloyd Dumm, 47, of 721 Maplewood Ave., cut right thumb while working on a window at the Courthouse yesterday.

Kathy Bowers, 2½, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bowers, Route 2, pulled a heated iron on herself and burned her left forehead and shoulder, wrist and fingers of both hands yesterday.

Becky Stepp, 16, Amanda, injured right shoulder in an auto accident at the corner of Main and Pickaway St. yesterday. All four were treated and released.

Josephine Wilson, 83, E. Main St., fell three steps at home and fractured her right ankle yesterday. She was admitted.

Ohio's Hiking Grandma Is Tuckered Out

PENDLETON, Ore. (AP) — Grandma Emma Gatewood is tired.

"I almost have bitten off more than I could chew," said the peppery 71-year-old from Gallipolis, Ohio, as she walked into town Wendesday.

She plans to complete her hike from Independence, Mo., to the Oregon Centennial Exposition in Portland, 213 miles west of here, then rest.

A train of covered wagons that left Independence on April 19 was passed by Mrs. Gatewood, who walked as much as 30 miles a day in the early stages of her trip. The wagons are due here Saturday and they will continue on to Independence, Ore., 60-odd miles south of Portland. But not Grandma Gatewood. Unless she changes her mind. "But if I do, I'll ride."

She left Squaw Creek Viewpoint 16 miles away in the Blue Mountains at 4 a.m. today and came walking into town, a torn blue umbrella over her shoulder, at 11:30 a.m.

State's Financial Crisis Is Eased

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's financial crisis has been somewhat eased, says the Department of Taxation.

Excise tax boosts by the DiSalle administration have raised state income by more than 1½ million dollars in June, the department reported.

In just 22 days the two-cents-a-pack hike on cigarettes brought $1,233,000 of the increase. The tax boost was effective June 8.

An extra $58,000 from the tax increase on 3.2 beer, however, was more than offset by $115,000 less received from high-power beer taxes than in the same period last year.

The wagering tax boost brought in the rest of the over-all amount. Effective for 26 days during June, it added $380,000. This tax is on pari-mutuel horserace betting.

Teays Valley Board Discusses Fire Fighting School Proposal

The Teays Valley Board of Education studied at its Monday meeting a proposal to sponsor a fire fighting school, which would probably be held at the Ashville Fire Department.

Ed Cummins, chief of the Ashville Fire Department, met with the board to discuss possibilities of sponsoring the school. This school would be under the branch of Trades and Industries Service of the State Department of Education.

The Teays Valley Board would pay costs of the school and be reimbursed by the Ashville Fire Department.

Board members were to decide this week which members would run for the two and four-year term school board seats, which are all up for election this fall.

Robert D. Sultzbach, 44, Springfield, refused to accept the assistant principalship at Walnut Twp He was hired recently by the board for that post and tot each English, mathematics, public speaking and handle some guidance work.

THE REPAIR work on the Walnut Twp. school roof was put up for bids. Teays Valley school lunches were raised five cents.

Children's lunches, which formerly cost 25 cents, are 30 cents and teachers' lunches were raised from 35 to 40 cents. All Teays Valley schools will open their fall term with a teachers' meeting on August 31.

Teachers will meet at 9 a. m. in the Ashville-Harrison school auditorium. School staffs will meet in their respective schools at 10:30 a. m. August 31, following the combined meeting at Ashville.

School for students will start September 1 at 8:45 a. m. and will be af ull day. Schools will start at 8:45 a. m. and end at 3:30 p. m. daily throughout the year.

Due to crowded conditions in all Teays Valley schools, they will operate on a nine-hour period day with some classes during the noon hour.

These noon classes will take their lunch periods before or after the regular noon period. Several classes will be held in the respective school auditoriums and cafeterias due to overcrowded conditions throughout the district.

SOUTH BLOOMFIELD fifth and eighth grades will be assigned to the Ashville - Harrison school. Duvall eight graders will also attend Ashville.

Other first and second grade students from Duvall may be assigned to Ashville, depending on number to enroll when school starts. Number of trailer court children will influence this move.

Madison Twp. seventh and eighth graders will attend Walnut Twp. school. Some first and second grade Madison students may be assigned Walnut after school starts.

The following schools will conduct pre-school tests for children who will turn six-years-of-age between September 1 and November 1:

Duvall—morning of August 10 for six students at Duvall school; Madison—afternoon of August 10 for four students at Duvall school;

Republic Steel Earnings Top Previous Highs

CLEVELAND (AP) — In sales volume, earnings and production, Republic Steel Corp., the nation's third largest steelmaker, broke all six-month records during the first half of 1959.

Board Chairman Charles M. White reported these first-half figures Wednesday night:

	1959	1958
Net income	$67,089,717	$23,904,602
Per share		$4.28 $1.53
Sales	$784,655,207	$417,228,790

White said the profit per dollar of sales was 8.6 cents in the six months ended June 30, compared with 5.7 cents in the first half of last year.

Records in sales, earnings and production during the first half of this year were attained, White said, "to a major degree as a result of "robbing' business from the third quarter—orders which would ordinarily have been placed, produced and shipped in July and August."

Customers bought in advance, he explained, "to assure themselves adequate steel supplies in the event of a strike."

Youngster Taken To Columbus

Thomas Schooley, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schooley, Route 2, was rushed to Berger Hospital at 11:15 a. m. today following a fall from a bed.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover said the child was taken to Berger Hospital and later transferred to Children's Hospital in Columbus. The extent of his injuries was not determined.

U.S. Reds Ruled Tied to Kremlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals, in a 2-1 opinion, today upheld a finding by the Subversive Activities Control Board that the U.S. Communist party is dominated by Moscow.

This means that the party, unless today's ruling is reversed, must register with the attorney general as an agency of a foreign power and must file reports of its finances and the names of its members.

The court decision marks another step in a nine-year battle by the government to require the Communist party to register under the 1950 Internal Security Act.

Two previous rulings by the board calling for party registration were returned by the courts for further proceedings.

Spain Utilizes Soft Touch

Can you get a fat man to reduce if he doesn't really want to? And what do you do in a paradoxical situation where you have to keep feeding him even while you're advocating a diet?

That's the story on Spain.

A poor country economically, Spain has waxed fat in recent years on billions poured in by the United States in return for rights to construct Strategic Air Command bomber bases there.

For some reason the U. S. allowed itself to get completely boxed in that deal. Dictator Francisco Franco made no concessions, and the money the U. S. agreed to pay as part of the deal had no strings attached.

Presumably Washington toed Franco's mark because of the importance of these bases within bomber range but out of intermediate missile range of Russia.

But much of this massiv einfusion of aid went for naught. Franco tried to pour it all into industrialization, neglecting the weak agricultural base of the country. Graft and corruption swallowed great chunks of the money, aided not only by traditional Spanish leniency in such matters, but also by the fact that in a dictatorship such as Franco's there is no vehicle for public protest.

Well, the aid ran out, and Franco discovered he needed still more help. He was forced to turn to the Organization for European Economic Cooperation. Unlike the U. S., the OEEC said to Franco, "Okay, but first you must put your economic house in order."

Franco has now reluctantly devalued currency from 42 pesetas to a dollar to 60 pesetas (Spanish currency had been selling everywhere for 50 to 56 per dollar anyway). Spain has also accepted liberalized foreign trade measures, and internal fiscal reforms.

In return she is to receive $375 million in credits abroad. Included is $200 million from U. S. government agencies and private banks. But does the fat man really want to reduce. On the answer will rest both the immediate future of Franco and of Spain itself.

Get a Hobby; Make It Pay

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Looking for a sense of security? Bandleader Ted Steele gives a tip.

"Get interested in something besides your job," he advises. "Develop a hobby — and make it pay.

"This outside security even helps you in your career by giving you more peace of mind. It has worked for me. I have been 25 years in show business, and I have never been out of a job."

Steele, once a $65-a-month NBC page boy, now is in the six-figure income bracket. An all-around performer, he has written some 30 songs, made more than 100 recordings.

A vocalist, pianist and organist as well as a bandleader, he also doubles as an emcee and newscaster. Ted currently carries one of the heaviest schedules in the radio-TV field. He is on the air 25 hours a week.

But he has always believed in having "something outside" working for him. For years he ran a 300-acre dairy farm in Bucks County, Pa. He sold it when hired hands became too hard to find.

Now he operates two pet shops on the East Side here.

Between entertainment chores Steele likes to visit his shops, which stock everything from 5-cent guppies to $500 white poodles.

He finds it relaxing — and profitable — to spend an hour or so each day in this small world of singing mules — canaries cross-bred with wild goldfinches; kissing gouramis — fish from Honolulu, and black Japanese waltzing mice.

"The pet shops give me an added feeling of security, too," he says. "I know that, if I had to, I could make a living from them."

Ted numbers among his clients doctors, dentists, many society notables, and such entertainment figures as Anna Magnani, June Valli, Carol Haney and Lloyd Nolan.

Pets with wealthy owners today live in a special world of privilege. Some dogs arrive in chauffeur-driven cars for a beauty treatment that can cost up to $25.

White poodles who like to wear toenail polish now have a choice of more than a dozen colors. The canine set also can put on the dog with its own txuedo collars, top hats, ankle bracelets, necklaces and cashmere sweaters.

"Many of the dogs have better wardrobes than their mistresses," said Steele.

Steele says his accountant is still grumbling over his decision to go into the pet business.

"He thought if I needed an outside interest I should get interested in telephone stocks.

"But telephone stock can't lick you in the face when you're feeling low."

Independent Schools Needed

By George Sokolsky

J. Maurice Naparstek of Ayer, Mass., wrote me an interesting letter dealing with independent schools to which he refers as private schools. Their numbers are increasing throughout the United States. He wonders whether their existence is justified. He writes:

". . .I question the advisability and wisdom of having so many private schools in this country, more especially religious denominational schools. There is, perhaps, room for some so called private exclusive schools to cater to the wealthy or the snobbish; of course there is need for the seminaries for the training of religious leaders. But the parochial schools of the various denominations, how much do they do to advance the desired American way of life?

"Religions, by their very nature, are segregationist and there are few that will not claim that their way is just a little better than the neighbor's. The ideal goal of Americanism, as I see it, is to live, work, study and strive together for the mutual welfare, respecting the others' differences if they are inoffensive and non-encroaching. The best way, you know, to add mixed fractions is to bring them to a common denominator."

The issue is often raised, particularly as such schools are tax-exempt. Some of them are situated on what amounts to abandoned estates; that is, the owners, moving from an area, contribute land and buildings to an educational institution; the property thus becomes tax-exempt and the town loses revenue.

On the other hand, whereas in most parts of this country education is compulsory, no law deprives the parent of his right to direct the schooling and character building of his own children. My correspondent does not object to schools for snobs but he does object to schools which are designed to train the child to be faithful to the traditions and faith of his ancestors. The reason for his objections is that he would prefer a land of conformity, where there are no differences of outlook on life.

What a dull prospect! If we all had the same philosophy of life, belonged to the same churches, voted for the same party, liked the same hot dogs and frankfurters, what would there be to argue about? We might just as well elect a dictator of taste and expect him to remain in office until some tasteless person assassinated him.

The most distinctive characteristic of American society is the variety of religious beliefs and practices. Here we have more than 200 variations for manifesting Protestant Christianity and despite the efforts to unite sects, the number will probably grow.

Among the Jews, who are in spirit homogeneous, there are at least four distinct sects, Hassidim, Orthodox, (Misnagdim), Conservative, Reformed and there is a conflict in the fundamentals of interpretation of Jewish history and the Messianic ideal between the Zionists and those who adhere to the Council for Judaism.

The Roman Catholics in this country suffer only slightly from a Right and Left deviation — namely, Father Feeney's following in Boston and the small number of anti-clericals in the large cities.

Apparently religion remains a significant device for asserting individualism in this era of mechanistic conformism. The religious independent school is not limited to Roman Catholics. Several faiths have parochial schools and they are of growing importance in a civilization which is becoming too secular for social safety.

In New York City where there are about 60 institutions of higher learning, Yeshiva University is making progress both in the number of students, the quality of the faculty and the plant.

This institution is an outgrowth of a Jewish orthodox parochial school where students prepared for the rabbinate. It grew into a magnificent university without compromising even one religious aspect. It remains an orthodox Jewish university as Fordham or Notre Dame remains Roman Catholic.

Its scholarly quality is of the highest order, particularly in the field of mathematics. It has a medical school, the Albert Einstein Medical School. I mention this particular university because it is the only orthodox Jewish university in the United States and in its approach to scholarship is on a very high level.

Most of the great schools of the United States were founded by religious groups, originally to train clergymen. No matter how much the years have mellowed sectarianism, each school, college, university has its distinctive characteristics. Perhaps that is one reason why we have not become a nation of robots.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

GARSON KANIN, author of "Born Yesterday" and "Blow Up a Storm," was visiting a big movie studio in Hollywood where he saw a producer and a script writer engaged in a violent argument. Most of their heated words were unintelligible to him, but suddenly the producer jumped to his feet and declared loudly and clearly, "Dammit, Norman, I don't want it good. I want it Tuesday!"

Posture Wards Off Fatigue

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Maybe your ancestors used to walk on all fours, but for quite a few centuries now, human beings have been getting around on their feet alone.

So straighten all the way up!

Not only does good posture make you look better, it actually makes you feel better.

Keep your head and chest high, your chin level and your abdomen flat. When you walk, take long easy strides.

When standing, whether it's only for a moment or during a long wait for a bus or train, keep your feet parallel and place your weight on both feet.

As I have explained previously (but you probably don't remember), shifting your weight from one foot to the other, or standing with one foot on a bar or curb, won't give either leg much rest.

You must stand with both feet firmly on a flat surface to rest most while standing. Remember this next time you have to stand in a crowded streetcar, bus or train on the way to or from work.

I think you'll arrive much more refreshed than if you had let one foot support the weight of your entire body for any length of time.

It's equally important to maintain correct posture while sitting. Think you could sit on a stool all day? Probably not, at least not without getting pretty tired.

Then why on earth do so few of you use the back of your chair properly? It's there for a reason, so use it.

Sit straight with your back firmly against the back of the chair. Your knees should be at right angles most of the time, although I don't expect anyone to stay rigid for a long period.

The height of the seat, incidentally, should be the same as the length of your leg from the bak of your knee to the bottom of the heel.

Now I don't want you to resemble a wooden soldier when you're walking or sitting; but if you follow the simple advice I have listed here, I think you will find that you are less tired at the end of the day.

If you do walk and sit correctly, and you still feel somewhat fatigued, your elimination system may be at fault. Most of us need from six to eight glasses of water or other fluid each day to stay regular.

One more thing. Head for the washroom when you feel the urge. Don't delay any longer than is necessary.

Question and Answer

Mrs. A. M.: Would plastic surgery permanently remove bags from under my eyes, or would they return after a time? Is this surgery dangerous?

Answer: Plastic surgical correction of bags under the eyes may produce permanent results in some cases. In other cases, the condition slowly recurs. This depends upon the original cause of the trouble.

This surgery is ordinarily not considered dangerous.

Jumbo, the mountain-climbing elephant who is trying to cross the Alps should make it OK—provided he doesn't run into any unforeseen obstacles, such as a landslide or a summit conferene.

When Jumbo started off nearby villagers toasted his trek with white wine. As befits an athlete, the pachyderm laid off the booze.

Jumbo is on his way to becoming a hero. What a hit he would make next year in a Republican political campaign parade!

The news stories reveal that Jumbo is being trailed by two donkeys carrying supplies — a couple of Democrats, no doubt. Though outnumbered two-to-one, when last seen the huge GOP symbol was well in the lead.

Jumbo's entourage also includes a truck. However, we understand it's too small for him to sneak a free ride.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — A look-see is a good eye-opener.

The exchange visits of Americans and Soviets—particularly officials—may have no immediate, visible results. Long - range, the thinking of both governments should be clarified and affected.

The Soviet Union's two deputy premiers, Frol R. Kozlov and Anastas I. Mikoyan, came this year to the United States where there is no broad discontent except perhaps on the racial issue. They looked around, and found a degree of prosperity the Soviets can only dream of.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon has visited the U.S.S.R. and—so far as American news reports from there indicate—found hordes of cheerful, hardworking Soviet citizens who showed no broad discontent with their government or their way of life.

Most Soviet citizens now alive never knew any other government or way of life, and life is getting better for them in material things.

In both cases what the officials saw should affect the thinking of their governments, particularly wishful thinking. And what the officials found can be multiplied many times by what the non-official visitors see in both countries.

The late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who shaped American foreign policy, seemed taken with the idea a number of times that if this country could keep up its "containment" policy long enough the Soviet edifice might topple.

He even went so far one time as to tell a congressional committee the Soviet system was on the point of collapsing. President Eisenhower's press secretary James C. Hagerty later had to explain Dulles didn't really mean collapsing.

Yet this attitude of Dulles, who never got a look around the Soviet Union raises a question: What would his thinking, and perhaps even some aspects of his foreign policy, have been if he had gotten an inside look?

Dulles, like Soviet leaders who are convinced capitalistic societies will eventually collapse, was a victim of his own wishful thinking. He and they wanted to believe that they were seeing what they wanted to see.

President Eisenhower is known to feel there are considerable pressures within the Soviet Union which might persuade the Kremlin to accept a tension - easing agreement.

That makes sense and is a long way from envisioning a Soviet collapse.

It is reasonable to believe that the more the Soviets learn about the material advantages of the people in the non-communist countries, the more they will want the same, and the more the pressure on their masters to meet their desires.

It's also reasonable to believe that as more Soviet citizens are educated they will feel an increased right to assert themselves in the conduct of a government which affects them. Travel is a part of their education.

The exchange visits which bring more and more Soviet citizens to this country — where they get a close-up view of what personal freedom means—should be a force shaping attitudes when they return home.

But again it would be wishful thinking to believe that Soviet citizens would want or would accept everything they see in American life.

For instance, they might feel repelled by a system which, unlike theirs, does not provide security from the cradle to the grave.

In short, there may be some things, but not all, which visiting Soviets might consider an improvement on their own system. By the same token, Americans visiting the U.S.S.R. may feel the same about what they see there.

In a long history of men, minds and governments there is a steady evolution, even though it may look painfully slow. No people or government can escape it.

So while this country may feel that letting Soviet citizens come here may be an effective way of bringing about changes in the Soviet Union, American visits to the U.S.S.R. may affect American thinking, too.

To think otherwise would be to assume there is nothing good in the Soviet Union and that everything is perfect here.

Spain Utilizes Soft Touch

Can you get a fat man to reduce if he doesn't really want to? And what do you do in a paradoxical situation where you have to keep feeding him even while you're advocating a diet?

That's the story on Spain.

A poor country economically, Spain has waxed fat in recent years on billions poured in by the United States in return for rights to construct Strategic Air Command bomber bases there.

For some reason the U. S. allowed itself to get completely boxed in that deal. Dictator Francisco Franco made no concessions, and the money the U. S. agreed to pay as part of the deal had no strings attached.

Presumably Washington toed Franco's mark because of the importance of these bases within bomber range but out of intermediate missile range of Russia.

But much of this massiv einfusion of aid went for naught. Franco tried to pour it all into industrialization, neglecting the weak agricultural base of the country. Graft and corruption swallowed great chunks of the money, aided not only by traditional Spanish leniency in such matters, but also by the fact that in a dictatorship such as Franco's there is no vehicle for public protest.

Well, the aid ran out, and Franco discovered he needed still more help. He was forced to turn to the Organization for European Economic Cooperation. Unlike the U. S., the OEEC said to Franco, "Okay, but first you must put your economic house in order."

Franco has now reluctantly devalued currency from 42 pesetas to a dollar to 60 pesetas (Spanish currency had been selling everywhere for 50 to 56 per dollar anyway). Spain has also accepted liberalized foreign trade measures, and internal fiscal reforms.

In return she is to receive $375 million in credits abroad. Included is $200 million from U. S. government agencies and private banks. But does the fat man really want to reduce. On the answer will rest both the immediate future of Franco and of Spain itself.

Get a Hobby; Make It Pay

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Looking for a sense of security? Bandleader Ted Steele gives a tip.

"Get interested in something besides your job," he advises. "Develop a hobby — and make it pay.

"This outside security even helps you in your career by giving you more peace of mind. It has worked for me. I have been 25 years in show business, and I have never been out of a job."

Steele, once a $65-a-month NBC page boy, now is in the six-figure income bracket. An all-around performer, he has written some 30 songs, made more than 100 recordings.

A vocalist, pianist and organist as well as a bandleader, he also doubles as an emcee and newscaster. Ted currently carries one of the heaviest schedules in the radio-TV field. He is on the air 25 hours a week.

But he has always believed in having "something outside" working for him. For years he ran a 300-acre dairy farm in Bucks County, Pa. He sold it when hired hands became too hard to find.

Now he operates two pet shops on the East Side here.

Between entertainment chores Steele likes to visit his shops, which stock everything from 5-cent guppies to $500 white poodles.

He finds it relaxing — and profitable — to spend an hour or so each day in this small world of singing mules — canaries crossbred with wild goldfinches; kissing gouramis — fish from Honolulu, and black Japanese waltzing mice.

"The pet shops give me an added feeling of security, too," he says. "I know that, if I had to, I could make a living from them."

Ted numbers among his clients doctors, dentists, many society notables, and such entertainment figures as Anna Magnani, June Valli, Carol Haney and Lloyd Nolan.

Pets with wealthy owners today live in a special world of privilege. Some dogs arrive in chauffeur-driven cars for a beauty treatment that can cost up to $25.

White poodles who like to wear toenail polish now have a choice of more than a dozen colors. The canine set also can put on the dog with its own txuedo collars, top hats, ankle bracelets, necklaces and cashmere sweaters.

"Many of the dogs have better wardrobes than their mistresses," said Steele.

Steele says his accountant is still grumbling over his decision to go into the pet business.

"He thought if I needed an outside interest I should get interested in telephone stocks.

"But telephone stock can't lick you in the face when you're feeling low."

Independent Schools Needed

By George Sokolsky

J. Maurice Naparstek of Ayer, Mass., wrote me an interesting letter dealing with independent schools to which he refers as private schools. Their numbers are increasing throughout the United States. He wonders whether their existence is justified. He writes:

". . .I question the advisability and wisdom of having so many private schools in this country, more especially religious denominational schools. There is, perhaps, room for some so called private exclusive schools to cater to the wealthy or the snobbish; of course there is need for the seminaries for the training of religious leaders. But the parochial schools of the various denominations, how much do they do to advance the desired American way of life?

"Religions, by their very nature, are segregationist and there are few that will not claim that their way is just a little better than the neighbor's. The ideal goal of Americanism, as I see it, is to live, work, study and strive together for the mutual welfare, respecting the others' differences if they are inoffensive and non-encroaching. The best way, you know, to add mixed fractions is to bring them to a common denominator."

The issue is often raised, particularly as such schools are tax-exempt. Some of them are situated on what amounts to abandoned estates; that is, the owners, moving from an area, contribute land and buildings to an educational institution; the property thus becomes tax-exempt and the town loses revenue.

On the other hand, whereas in most parts of this country education is compulsory, no law deprives the parent of his right to direct the schooling and character building of his own children. My correspondent does not object to schools for snobs but he does object to schools which are designed to train the child to be faithful to the traditions and faith of his ancestors. The reason for his objections is that he would prefer a land of conformity, where there are no differences of outlook on life.

What a dull prospect! If we all had the same philosophy of life, belonged to the same churches, voted for the same party, liked the same hot dogs and frankfurters, what would there be to argue about? We might just as well elect a dictator of taste and expect him to remain in office until some tasteless person assassinated him.

The most distinctive characteristic of American society is the variety of religious beliefs and practices. Here we have more than 200 variations for manifesting Protestant Christianity and despite the efforts to unite sects, the number will probably grow.

Among the Jews, who are in spirit homogeneous, there are at least four distinct sects, Hassidim, Orthodox, (Misnagdim), Conservative, Reformed and there is a conflict in the fundamentals of interpretation of Jewish history and the Messianic ideal between the Zionists and those who adhere to the Council for Judaism.

The Roman Catholics in this country suffer only slightly from a Right and Left deviation — namely, Father Feeney's following in Boston and the small number of anti-clericals in the large cities.

Apparently religion remains a significant device for asserting individualism in this era of mechanistic conformism. The religious independent school is not limited to Roman Catholics. Several faiths have parochial schools and they are of growing importance in a civilization which is becoming too secular for social safety.

In New York City where there are about 60 institutions of higher learning, Yeshiva University is making progress both in the number of students, the quality of the faculty and the plant.

This institution is an outgrowth of a Jewish orthodox parohcial school where students prepared for the rabbinate. It grew into a magnificent university without compromising even one religious aspect. It remains an orthodox Jewish university as Fordham or Notre Dame remains Roman Catholic.

Its scholarly quality is of the highest order, particularly in the field of mathematics. It has a medical school, the Albert Einstein Medical School. I mention this particular university because it is the only orthodox Jewish university in the United States and in its approach to scholarship is on a very high level.

Most of the great schools of the United States were founded by religious groups, originally to train clergymen. No matter how much the years have mellowed sectarianism, each school, college, university has its distinctive characteristics. Perhaps that is one reason why we have not become a nation of robots.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

GARSON KANIN, author of "Born Yesterday" and "Blow Up a Storm," was visiting a big movie studio in Hollywood where he saw a producer and a script writer engaged in a violent argument. Most of their heated words were unintelligible to him, but suddenly the producer jumped to his feet and declared loudly and clearly, "Dammit, Norman, I don't want it good. I want it Tuesday!"

Posture Wards Off Fatigue

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Maybe your ancestors used to walk on all fours, but for quite a few centuries now, human beings have been getting around on their feet alone.

So straighten all the way up!

Not only does good posture make you look better, it actually makes you feel better.

Keep your head and chest high, your chin level and your abdomen flat. When you walk, take long easy strides.

When standing, whether it's only for a moment or during a long wait for a bus or train, keep your feet parallel and place your weight on both feet.

As I have explained previously (but you probably don't remember), shifting your weight from one foot to the other, or standing with one foot on a bar or curb, won't give either leg much rest.

You must stand with both feet firmly on a flat surface to rest most while standing. Remember this next time you have to stand in a crowded streetcar, bus or train on the way to or from work.

I think you'll arrive much more refreshed than if you had let one foot support the weight of your entire body for any length of time.

It's equally important to maintain correct posture while sitting. Think you could sit on a stool all day? Probably not, at least not without getting pretty tired.

Then why on earth do so few of you use the back of your chair properly? It's there for a reason, so use it.

Sit straight with your back firmly against the back of the chair. Your knees should be at right angles most of the time, although I don't expect anyone to stay rigid for a long period.

The height of the seat, incidentally, should be the same as the length of your leg from the bak of your knee to the bottom of the heel.

Now I don't want you to resemble a wooden soldier when you're walking or sitting; but if you follow the simple advice I have listed here, I think you will find that you are less tired at the end of the day.

If you do walk and sit correctly, and you still feel somewhat fatigued, your elimination system may be at fault. Most of us need from six to eight glasses of water or other fluid each day to stay regular.

One more thing. Head for the washroom when you feel the urge. Don't delay any longer than is necessary.

Question and Answer

Mrs. A. M.: Would plastic surgery permanently remove bags from under my eyes, or would they return after a time? Is this surgery dangerous?

Answer: Plastic surgical correction of bags under the eyes may produce permanent results in some cases. In other cases, the condition slowly recurs. This depends upon the original cause of the trouble.

This surgery is ordinarily not considered dangerous.

Jumbo, the mountain-climbing elephant who is trying to cross the Alps should make it OK—provided he doesn't run into any unforeseen obstacles, such as a landslide or a summit conferene.

When Jumbo started off nearby villagers toasted his trek witn white wine. As befits an athlete, the pachyderm laid off the booze.

Jumbo is on his way to becoming a hero. What a hit he would make next year in a Republican political campaign parade!

The news stories reveal that Jumbo is being trailed by two donkeys carrying supplies — a couple of Democrats, no doubt. Though outnumbered two-to-one, when last seen the huge GOP symbol was well in the lead.

Jumbo's entourage also includes a truck. However, we understand it's too small for him to sneak a free ride.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — A look-see is a good eye-opener.

The exchange visits of Americans and Soviets—particularly officials—may have no immediate, visible results. Long - range, the thinking of both governments should be clarified and affected.

The Soviet Union's two deputy premiers, Frol R. Kozlov and Anastas I. Mikoyan, came this year to the United States where there is no broad discontent except perhaps on the racial issue. They looked around, and found a degree of prosperity the Soviets can only dream of.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon has visited the U.S.S.R. and—so far as American news reports from there indicate—found hordes of cheerful, hardworking Soviet citizens who showed no broad discontent with their government or their way of life.

Most Soviet citizens now alive never knew any other government or way of life, and life is getting better for them in material things.

In both cases what the officials saw should affect the thinking of their governments, particularly wishful thinking. And what the officials found can be multiplied many times by what the non-official visitors see in both countries.

The late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who shaped American foreign policy, seemed taken with the idea a number of times that if this country could keep up its "containment" policy long enough the Soviet edifice might topple.

He even went so far one time as to tell a congressional committee the Soviet system was on the point of collapsing. President Eisenhower's press secretary James C. Hagerty later had to explain Dulles didn't really mean collapsing.

Yet this attitude of Dulles, who never got a look around the Soviet Union raises a question: What would his thinking, and perhaps even some aspects of his foreign policy, have been if he had gotten an inside look?

Dulles, like Soviet leaders who are convinced capitalistic societies will eventually collapse, was a victim of his own wishful thinking. He and they wanted to believe that they were seeing what they wanted to see.

President Eisenhower is known to feel there are considerable pressures within the Soviet Union which might persuade the Kremlin to accept a tension - easing agreement.

That makes sense and is a long way from envisioning a Soviet collapse.

It is reasonable to believe that the more the Soviets learn about the material advantages of the people in the non-communist countries, the more they will want the same, and the more the pressure on their masters to meet their desires.

It's also reasonable to believe that as more Soviet citizens are educated they will feel an increased right to assert themselves in the conduct of a government which affects them. Travel is a part of their education.

The exchange visits which bring more and more Soviet citizens to this country — where they get a close-up view of what personal freedom means—should be a force shaping attitudes when they return home.

But again it would be wishful thinking to believe that Soviet citizens would want or would accept everything they see in American life.

For instance, they might feel repelled by a system which, unlike theirs, does not provide security from the cradle to the grave.

In short, there may be some things, but not all, which visiting Soviets might consider an improvement on their own system. By the same token, Americans visiting the U.S.S.R. may feel the same about what they see there.

In a long history of men, minds and governments there is a steady evolution, even though it may look painfully slow. No people or government can escape it.

So while this country may feel that letting Soviet citizens come here may be an effective way of bringing about changes in the Soviet Union, American visits to the U.S.S.R. may affect American thinking, too.

To think otherwise would be to assume there is nothing good in the Soviet Union and that everything is perfect here.

Well-Lighted Dining Room Aids Home Entertainment

By ELEANOR ROSS

Pleasant lighting for pleasant dining is a good slogan for the homemaker who wants her culinary efforts to be remembered and who wants to see a happy family circle at table. If this applies to you—and we're sure i tdoes—then a check of your dining room lighting might be a good idea.

The American Home Lighting Institute, the trade association of lighting fixture manufacturers and distributors, has some very cogent ideas along this line. They tell us that a properly lighted dining room can do wonders in affecting the mood of the diner, as well as the taste of the food itself.

The trick to remember is to start with a basic lighting setup that can be altered easily to meet various dining room requirements and uses.

For a formal dinner or for a holiday feast, the hostess might want the lights turned up high to stimulate conversation and induce a mood of gaiety and a happy atmosphere.

For a small, informal dinner, an intimate "candlelight" effect is delightful. This effect is easily obtained by just dimming the lights.

If a dining room table is illuminated by a flexible light fixture, then it can serve well for a variety of uses and household tasks between meals. After all, who has enough space so that a room can be set aside for just mealtimes!

Basic dining room lighting varies with the area of the room.

For a dining room of less than 125 square feet, as a 9 x 12 space would be, a 12-15 inch diameter ceiling fixture is required. Or use a 6-foot fluorescent strip on the wall, the tube concealed by a faceboard.

For average dining rooms, the ceiling fixture should be 15-17 inches in diameter.

Or use a shielded 8-12 foot fluorescent strip. Large dining rooms, over 225 feet of wall lighting. A hanging fixture over the table adds a decorative touch.

In every case, a variable light control, commonly known as a "dimmer switch", plus flexible lighting fixtures, allow for light changes to suit the occasion.

The dimmer switch replaces the ordinary off-on switch. It permits the intensity of the lighting to be adjusted from dim to full brightness by rotating a knob.

Added flexibility is provided by fixtures that raise and lower. Some fixtures even travel on ceiling tracks. Such flexibility is especially useful for other dining room table needs.

For instance, if Mom uses the table for sewing, or Dad and the kids use it for homework, the dining room light can be adjusted to provide the high light level needed for visual comfort. An adjustment of the dimming switch will provide the right light if the table is used for games.

Fortunately, it's fairly simple to adjust your dining room lighting. In many cases, an old-fashioned fixture can easily be replaced with a modern model that raises and lowers. If moved, a handy person can tackle the job without much difficulty.

You can install a ceiling track yourself, for the ultimate in flexible lighting. These are in use with certain types of pulley fixtures. They allow the fixture to move across the ceiling as well as up and down. The track should be fastened to the ceiling studs.

Wall lighting is about the easiest type of dining room lighting to install.

You can buy complete wall lighting kits from your electrical distributor or contractor. These consist of a fluorescent channel which is fastened to the wall and a faceboard which you can paint or paper. The channel comes with a cord that is plugged into a convenient outlet.

A switch permits you to turn the light on and off.

As the dining room returns to something of its former importance in the home layout plans, these new lighting advances and improvements are well worth noting.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Give This Gal a Soap Box!

DEAR ABBY: A relative, acquired by marriage visits me regularly and for several hours at a time. She talks continuously. She says she has no one to talk to at home so when she goes visiting she has a lot to say. The funny part of it is, she can't stand being around anyone who talks too much. She complains that no one comes to visit her. Can you blame them? She keeps visiting others until whe wears out her welcome. She isn't stupid either. She is well-informed and up on all the news. I wish I could put her wise to the fact that she would be so much more acceptable if only she wouldn't talk so much. Can it be done? Y.

DEAR Y.: You could tell her—but I doubt if it would help. A closed mind usually goes with an open mouth. She wants an audience, not tips on how to win friends and influence people.

DEAR ABBY: I knew a sweet little auburn - haired lady thirty-three years ago, but she married someone else and so did I. I lost my wife six years ago. I read in the obituaries recently that this woman had lost her husband. I wrote her a letter and asked if she would like to see me again. We met. She gave me three beautiful kisses and said she thought I could replace her husband.

Now for my problem. I saw a doctor eight years ago because I lost all desire for romance. I was only 64 then. The doctor said he was only 62 and he'd lost his, too, and nothing could be done about it. Would it be fair to marry this lady without telling her about it? She is young yet. Only 64.

PONDERING

DEAR PONDERING: May I borrow a phrase from a very good Book? "Do unto others..."

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl who is considered very popular. I have gone steady several times but not for very long because I lose interest in the boy as soon as I know I've got him.

I get to know boys very fast. I mean on the first date I make out like mad with them. I don't let them go too far, Abby. I give you my word. My girlfriends have told me that my reputation is getting very bad. My own brother told me this, also.

How can I refuse to make out with boys that I have already made out with? I don't want to lose my popularity.

MUST KNOW

DEAR MUST: It is always the girl who sets the pace on a date. It's up to you to make it clear that you have "reformed." When a boy makes advances, restate the fact. And keep restating it. If you lose your popularity because you refuse to make out—you are popular with the wrong boys.

DEAR ABBY: Our mother is 72 and has been a widow for 8 years. Every year we have the same trouble with her. She likes to have a big party to celebrate her wedding anniversary. How can we tell her that after a husband passes away, his widow should not celebrate her wedding anniversary? Or are we wrong in trying to discourage such an event? She expects gifts, too. THE CHILDREN

DEAR CHILDREN: You are not wrong. Perhaps she wants a "celebration" to ward off the "blues" on this particular date. Compromise by having a "family dinner". But tell her that anniversary gifts are discontinued after one of the parties is deceased.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose a self - addressed, stamped envelope.

Armstrong Reunion At Amanda Sunday

Descendants of the late Milton and Caroline (Mowery) Armstrong held their annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Armstrong, Amanda, Sunday. Approximately 25 members attended.

After social and business sessions, refreshments were served to the guests. Next year's reunion will be held the last Sunday in July.

18, KILLED LOVER 41 — Louise May Hunsbarger is shown at Marion County jail in Indianapolis, Ind., after admitting she shot and killed her lover, Ben E. Giberson, 41. She said he put a loaded .22 caliber pistol on a table in front of her and told her "either you shoot me or I'm going to shoot you," apparently because he had seen her talking to another man. Friends thought she was his daughter, it was said.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Give This Gal a Soap Box!

DEAR ABBY: A relative, acquired by marriage visits me regularly and for several hours at a time. She talks continuously. She says she has no one to talk to at home so when she goes visiting she has a lot to say. The funny part of it is, she can't stand being around anyone who talks too much. She complains that no one comes to visit her. Can you blame them? She keeps visiting others until whe wears out her welcome. She isn't stupid either. She is well-informed and up on all the news. I wish I could put her wise to the fact that she would be so much more acceptable if only she wouldn't talk so much. Can it be done? Y.

DEAR Y.: You could tell her—but I doubt if it would help. A closed mind usually goes with an open mouth. She wants an audience, not tips on how to win friends and influence people.

DEAR ABBY: I knew a sweet little auburn - haired lady thirty-three years ago, but she married someone else and so did I. I lost my wife six years ago. I read in the obituaries recently that this woman had lost her husband. I wrote her a letter and asked if she would like to see me again. We met. She gave me three beautiful kisses and said she thought I could replace her husband.

Now for my problem. I saw a doctor eight years ago because I lost all desire for romance. I was only 64 then. The doctor said he was only 62 and he'd lost his, too, and nothing could be done about it. Would it be fair to marry this lady without telling her about it? She is young yet. Only 64.

PONDERING

DEAR PONDERING: May I borrow a phrase from a very good Book? "Do unto others..."

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl who is considered very popular. I have gone steady several times but not for very long because I lose interest in the boy as soon as I know I've got him.

I get to know boys very fast. I mean on the first date I make out like mad with them. I don't let them go too far, Abby. I give you my word. My girlfriends have told me that my reputation is getting very bad. My own brother told me this, also.

How can I refuse to make out with boys that I have already made out with? I don't want to lose my popularity.

MUST KNOW

DEAR MUST: It is always the girl who sets the pace on a date. It's up to you to make it clear that you have "reformed." When a boy makes advances, restate the fact. And keep restating it. If you lose your popularity because you refuse to make out—you are popular with the wrong boys.

DEAR ABBY: Our mother is 72 and has been a widow for 8 years. Every year we have the same trouble with her. She likes to have a big party to celebrate her wedding anniversary. How can we tell her that after a husband passes away, his widow should not celebrate her wedding anniversary? Or are we wrong in trying to discourage such an event? She expects gifts, too. THE CHILDREN

DEAR CHILDREN: You are not wrong. Perhaps she wants a "celebration" to ward off the "blues" on this particular date. Compromise by having a "family dinner". But tell her that anniversary gifts are discontinued after one of the parties is deceased.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose a self - addressed, stamped envelope.

Armstrong Reunion At Amanda Sunday

After social and business sessions, refreshments were served to the guests. Next year's reunion will be held the last Sunday in July.

18, KILLED LOVER 41 — Louise May Hunsbarger is shown at Marion County jail in Indianapolis, Ind., after admitting she shot and killed her lover, Ben E. Giberson, 41. She said he put a loaded .22 caliber pistol on a table in front of her and told her "either you shoot me or I'm going to shoot you," apparently because he had seen her talking to another man. Friends thought she was his daughter, it was said.

Atlas Missile Streaks over Ocean Range

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A block-busting Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile streaked 5,500 miles over the Atlantic Tuesday night, boosting U.S. hopes for an operational ocean - spanning war rocket.

Recovery ships began a search near Oscension Island for a small data capsule that popped out of the Atlas nose cone.

The 18-inch spherical capsule contained instruments to record the missile's performance on its 15,000-mile-an-hour flight and to check the effect of the tremendous heat encountered by the nose cone as it plunged back through the earth's atmosphere from a height of 300 miles.

The capsule was ejected automatically from the cone as it neared the ocean. A parachute eased its descent and a balloon-like device inflated so it would float on the water. There was no plan to recover the cone.

The Air Force reported this was the second straight full-range success for the Atlas. It was the first time a "D" series model—the operational prototype—flew without trouble.

Reliable sources here reported that three or four consecutive "D" rocket successes could make the Atlas ready for troop use.

Defense Secretary Neil McElroy said earlier this week the Soviets probably already have an operational ICBM, but estimated they have fewer than 10 missiles which could hit this country.

Hundreds of Complaints Coming

New Ohio Civil Rights Panel Ready to Start Functioning

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael DiSalle Wednesday swore in members of Ohio's first statewide Civil Rights Commission.

Taking the oath in the governor's Statehouse office were Richard E. Guggenheim, 46, of Cincinnati, chairman; Roosevelt S. Dickey, 54, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Henrietta Looman, 42, of Canton.

A fourth member, Albert J. Dillehay of Akron, was out of the state on business.

The governor has yet to name a fifth member of the commission, created by the Legislature to prevent racial discrimination in employment.

"The commission will protect the rights of everyone," DiSalle said after the ceremonies. He termed groundless the concern expressed in some quarters that the commission may use its powers for persecution.

"I suppose you will receive hundreds and hundreds of complaints," the governor told Guggenheim. "Some of them will be justified. Some people will seek to use the commission for their own purposes," he warned.

DiSalle said Ohio's law was the best of its kind in the nation, and expressed belief that it will be beneficial.

Guggenheim, an official of the United States Shoe Corp., and an officer of the Cincinnati chapter of the American Jewish Committee, said the commission will begin functioning as soon as possible.

He said one of the first acts will be to prepare notices that employers of more than four persons must post. The posters set forth requirements in the law to prevent discrimination.

Statute provides a maximum fine of $500 for failure to post the notices.

Anti-discrimination orders by the commission are enforceable through local courts. Employers failing to heed such orders are subject to contempt of court proceedings. The Ohio law does not apply to workers in domestic service. But the law includes labor organizations and employment agencies in its provisions.

Mrs. Looman, a member of the Canton Fair Employment Practices Commission, expressed pleasure at being selected.

"I feel very strongly about the work to be done," she said.

Dickey said he agreed with the chairman that it will be a working commission. "We will try to carry out a program in line with the governor's thinking with emphasis on conference and conciliation. My experience in Cleveland leads me to believe we can settle most of the cases without a public hearing."

Dickey is a member of the Housing Committee of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Guggenheim said the commission will establish a Columbus office, appoint hearing examiners and other employes and a full-time, $12,000 a year director. The Legislature appropriated $200,000 to operate the commission during its first two years.

Guggenheim, Dickey and Dillehay are Democrats. Mrs. Looman is a Republican. The fifth appointee also will be a Republican. Commission members receive $5,000 and expenses annually.

The commission interviewed Frank W. Baldau, executive director of Cleveland's community relations board, as its first applicant for director of the commission.

Commission members said several other applicants will be interviewed at a later date before a director is selected.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — The Flagstaff Daily Sun wanted a translation for one sentence written in the native Navajo language.

The newspaper sent the sentence to its Washington reporter. He took the sentence to the Bureau of Indian Affairs. There were no Navajos employed there.

Nor were there any Navajos working in any of the eight offices of the New Mexico and Arizona Congressional delegations. Finally, the reporter found a Navajo in the U. S. Health Service. He couldn't speak Navajo.

Rangers Resume Search For Youth in Canyon

GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (AP) —National Park rangers today resumed a slow, painstaking search for a Georgia youth missing since Saturday in the Grand Canyon.

With no leads to guide them, searchers were losing all hope of finding Mason Owens, 16, of Savannah, alive.

The canyon took the lives of Owens' two companions—the Rev. Eugene A. Gavigan, 30, and Walter J. Mahany Jr., 16, both of Savannah. The trio went into the canyon last Friday.

Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross, was born in Washington D. C., on Christmas Day, 1821.

Hundreds of Complaints Coming

New Ohio Civil Rights Panel Ready to Start Functioning

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael DiSalle Wednesday swore in members of Ohio's first statewide Civil Rights Commission.

Taking the oath in the governor's Statehouse office were Richard E. Guggenheim, 46, of Cincinnati, chairman; Roosevelt S. Dickey, 54, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Henrietta Looman, 42, of Canton.

A fourth member, Albert J. Dillehay of Akron, was out of the state on business.

The governor has yet to name a fifth member of the commission, created by the Legislature to prevent racial discrimination in employment.

LIBEL TO BE IN STARRING ROLE—Here are star players in what promises to be a big libel drama when and if Teamsters President Jimmy Hoffa goes through with his threat to sue Robert F. Kennedy, Senate rackets subcommittee chief counsel, for libel. Included as defendants would be NBC President Robert Sarnoff and TV performer Jack Paar, on whose show Kennedy made the allegedly defamatory statements, which he repeated later on another telecast. Hoffa's attorney is Edward Bennett Williams of Washington, whose clientele has included the late Senator Joseph McCarthy, gambler Frank Costello, Confidential magazine, Dave Beck and a lot of entertainment people. All the fuss got stirred up when Kennedy said the rackets investigation had shown "that Mr. Hoffa has made collusive deals with employers, that he betrayed the union membership, that he put gangsters and racketeers in important positions of power . . ." etc.

Drunk Driver Demonstration Flops on TV

LONDON (AP) — A television program backfired Tuesday night when three motorists did better after drinking whisky than they did while dry.

The three Britons — two men and a girl — volunteered to help a BBC safety program "How Good a Driver Are You?" prove that alcohol slows down a driver's reactions.

The test consisted of negotiating an automobile over a set course, with a lot of reversing, turning and going forward and without knocking down or touching a series of posts.

The first driver sober, swung through the course in 45.5 seconds. Then he drank two whiskys and made it in 42 seconds.

The girl, a 21-year-old secretary, took 44 seconds before the drinks and 38.5 after.

The third driver's times: before 43.5; after 38.

Prof. Robert Drew of University College hastened to explain that the experiment was carried out too quickly.

"The second test was taken before the alcohol really had time to get into the bloodstream," said the professor. "The drivers also knew they were under test conditions, and so they pulled out that extra little bit."

NBC Planning Drama Series

Life Anthology Due On Video Network

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Last season numerous television critics and viewers frequently asked: Why doesn't NBC-TV have a live anthology dramatic series?

Beginning Sept. 20, with "Sunday Showcase," the network is going to have exactly that. There is every indication that it should be one of the best on the air....

To my mind, it's one of the most significant programming experiments of the forthcoming season. NBC is gambling that enough people are sufficiently interested in good drama to match the program against Ed Sullivan and "Maverick" on the opposition networks at 8 p.m. Sundays.

Robert Alan Aurthur, executive producer of the series, was saying the other day that he and NBC are offering "maximum creative freedom" such as existed in the halcyon days of TV drama several years ago when Fred Coe developed a host of outstanding stars, writers and directors — including Aurthur himself.

For the opening show Aurthur says he has an "extraordinary script" by S. Lee Pogostin called "People Kill People Sometimes." It will be followed by a two-part adaptation of Budd Schulberg's "What Makes Sammy Run?"

A comedy by Patrick Dennis, author of "Auntie Mame," is planned, as well as works by Alfred Bestor, John Osborne and one by Aurthur himself.

Well, you might ask, why get so excited about this program?

Chiefly because it's one of those remarkably few TV series that bucks the increasing trend toward filmed Westerns and adventures. Sad to relate, the series still is unsponsored. If no advertiser decides to sponsor it, NBC will have to go it alone.

Chicago Mayor's Limousine Tagged

CHICAGO (AP)—Detective Jack Muller, the police department's champion traffic ticket writer, tagged Mayor Richard J. Daley's shiny, new black limousine Tuesday, right in front of City Hall.

The mayor was not present when Muller wrote out a ticket for the car, which he said was in a no-parking zone.

Muller, whose normal assignment is a far North Side police district, was in the Loop to appear in a court case in City Hall. After leaving the court room, he walked around the City-County Building and tagged the mayor's car and 23 other autos for being illegally parked.

Cedarleaf oil, distilled from the wood of red cedar, is used in liquid soap, polishes, sprays and deodorants.

Drunk Driver Demonstration Flops on TV

LONDON (AP) — A television program backfired Tuesday night when three motorists did better after drinking whisky than they did while dry.

The three Britons — two men and a girl — volunteered to help a BBC safety program "How Good a Driver Are You?" prove that alcohol slows down a driver's reactions.

The test consisted of negotiating an automobile over a set course, with a lot of reversing, turning and going forward and without knocking down or touching a series of posts.

The first driver sober, swung through the course in 45.5 seconds. Then he drank two whiskys and made it in 42 seconds.

The girl, a 21-year-old secretary, took 44 seconds before the drinks and 38.5 after.

The third driver's times: before 43.5; after 38.

Prof. Robert Drew of University College hastened to explain that the experiment was carried out too quickly.

"The second test was taken before the alcohol really had time to get into the bloodstream," said the professor. "The drivers also knew they were under test conditions, and so they pulled out that extra little bit."

LIBEL TO BE IN STARRING ROLE—Here are star players in what promises to be a big libel drama when and if Teamsters President Jimmy Hoffa goes through with his threat to sue Robert F. Kennedy, Senate rackets subcommittee chief counsel, for libel. Included as defendants would be NBC President Robert Sarnoff and TV performer Jack Paar, on whose show Kennedy made the allegedly defamatory statements, which he repeated later on another telecast. Hoffa's attorney is Edward Bennett Williams of Washington, whose clientele has included the late Senator Joseph McCarthy, gambler Frank Costello, Confidential magazine, Dave Beck and a lot of entertainment people. All the fuss got stirred up when Kennedy said the rackets investigation had shown "that Mr. Hoffa has made collusive deals with employers, that he betrayed the union membership, that he put gangsters and racketeers in important positions of power . . ." etc.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rib roast, chuck roast, smoked ham, chicken, turkey and shrimp will be featured by the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend.

The diversity of meat specials indicates the relative balance of the market, meat specialists say. This level tone is expected to be-ever, with a decline in ham and other pork prices.

Hogs have fallen at the sholesale level for seven consecutive weeks and butcher hogs were the lowest in more than three years in Chicago last week on increased production of pigs.

Pork chop prices already are marked down 4 to 8 cents a pound over a wide area. This was more than 30 cents a pound lower than this time a year ago.

Families who like outdoor cooking can benefit from outstanding bargains in corn and potatoes. For the home canner or freezer, there also are expecially attractive bargains in corn, beans and tomatoes.

All these, of course, ar included on the list of best buys among vegetables, along with cucumber, peppers, radishes and green onions.

Other good vegetable buys are pascal celery, yellow onions, yellow or green squash, topped carrots and borccoli.

Canners also can get outstanding bargams among summer apples, which are plentiful and also cheap.

Blueberries, watermelons, limes bananas and pineapples also are on the best buy list, while good buys include Bartlett pears seedless grapes, some California plum, local cherries and California oranges, lemons and grapefruit. Southern peaches also are abundant, but their condition varies considerably.

Steel Union Pension Hike Is Asked Too

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Attention steel contract negotiators: Pensioned steelworkers say don't forget that they too, want more money.

Some 170 of them came out of retirement in Clairton, Pa., Tuesday to dramatize their demands for better pensions.

Their demands posted on signs, the pensioners marched to the entrance of U.S. Steel Corp.'s strike-bound Clairton works and circled the picket area twice.

"We've got to have a living wage for retired men as well as working men," said Leonard Pickering, vice president of the United Steelworkers Pensioners Assn., Dist. 15.

Pickering said the average pension is $60 a month. He said the men want $4 a month for each year of service.

Meanwhile in Ohio, Gov. Michael DiSalle urged President Eisenhower in a telegram to seek an early end to the steel strike. A prolonged strike, said DiSalle, would severely harm more than 100,000 Ohio steelworkers.

In Washington, the Commerce Department notified 110 steel companies still operating that the government may call on them to divert part of their output to military contractors.

As for the 500,000 striking steelworkers, some are beginning to feel a pinch in their pocketbooks.

Most have drawn their last full paychecks, placing them at the mercy of their savings accounts. The same goes for 78,000 workers furloughed in industries allied to steel.

Half Dollar Bill Heir Unidentified

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—Identity of the person who fell heir to $10,000 by presentation of the torn half of a $1 bill may never be disclosed.

C. William O'Neill, former governor of Ohio and attorney for the holder of the bill, has declined o release the name of his client.

Provision for payment of the money was made in the will of Dr. Braden E. Nida of Marietta, who died July 5 at 62. The will merely authorized the administrator to pay $10,000, tax free, to the holder of the other half of a dollar bill numbered P1897517H.

The will has been admitted to probate but it was necessary for the administrator to report only that the terms of the will had been carried out. It was not necessary for him to know the identity of the bill holder.

Longshoremen To Share in Automation

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Probably the first major labor contract to share the benefits of automation with workers has been agreed upon by leaders of 17,000 West Coast longshoremen and

The agreement was reached late Tuesday by negotiators for Harry Bridges' independent International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU) and the Pacific Maritime Assn.

The new contract, subject to ratification by both sides, would run three years.

In return for the union's promise to furnish competent personnel to man labor-saving devices, the employers agree to contribute a 1½-million-dollar fund during the first year of the pact as payment for the men's share of increased productivity.

Other gains reported include:

Wage raises of 11 cents an hour for longshoremen and 12½ cents for clerks, bringing the latter up to longshore parity within three years.

An added one-cent per hour employer contribution to the welfare fund if its balance drops below $100,000.

Coffee breaks.

The rates bring dockers' hourly pay to $3.08 and clerks to $2.93.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rib roast, chuck roast, smoked ham, chicken, turkey and shrimp will be featured by the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend.

The diversity of meat specials indicates the relative balance of the market, meat specialists say. This level tone is expected to be ever, with a decline in ham and other pork prices.

Hogs have fallen at the sholesale level for seven consecutive weeks and butcher hogs were the lowest in more than three years in Chicago last week on increased production of pigs.

Pork chop prices already are marked down 4 to 8 cents a pound over a wide area. This was more than 30 cents a pound lower than this time a year ago.

Families who like outdoor cooking can benefit from outstanding bargains in corn and potatoes. For the home canner or freezer, there also are expecially attractive bargains in corn, beans and tomatoes.

All these, of course, ar included on the list of best buys among vegetables, along with cucumber, peppers, radishes and green onions.

Other good vegetable buys are pascal celery, yellow onions, yellow or green squash, topped carrots and boreeoli.

Canners also can get outstanding bargams among summer apples, which are plentiful and also cheap.

Blueberries, watermelons, limes bananas and pineapples also are on the best buy list, while good buys include Bartlett pears seedless grapes, some California plum, local cherries and California oranges, lemons and grapefruit. Southern peaches also are abundant, but their condition varies considerably.

Steel Union Pension Hike Is Asked Too

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Attention steel contract negotiators: Pensioned steelworkers say don't forget that they too, want more money.

Some 170 of them came out of retirement in Clairton, Pa., Tuesday to dramatize their demands for better pensions.

Their demands posted on signs, the pensioners marched to the entrance of U.S. Steel Corp.'s strikebound Clairton works and circled the picket area twice.

"We've got to have a living wage for retired men as well as working men," said Leonard Pickering, vice president of the United Steelworkers Pensioners Assn., Dist. 15.

Pickering said the average pension is $60 a month. He said the men want $4 a month for each year of service.

Meanwhile in Ohio, Gov. Michael DiSalle urged President Eisenhower in a telegram to seek an early end to the steel strike. A prolonged strike, said DiSalle, would severely harm more than 100,000 Ohio steelworkers.

In Washington, the Commerce Department notified 110 steel companies still operating that the government may call on them to divert part of their output to military contractors.

As for the 500,000 striking steelworkers, some are beginning to feel a pinch in their pocketbooks.

Most have drawn their last full paychecks, placing them at the mercy of their savings accounts. The same goes for 78,000 workers furloughed in industries allied to steel.

Half Dollar Bill Heir Unidentified

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—Identity of the person who fell heir to $10,000 by presentation of the torn half of a $1 bill may never be disclosed.

C. William O'Neill, former governor of Ohio and attorney for the holder of the bill, has declined o release the name of his client.

Provision for payment of the money was made in the will of Dr. Braden E. Nida of Marietta, who died July 5 at 62. The will merely authorized the administrator to pay $10,000, tax free, to the holder of the other half of a dollar bill numbered P1897517H.

The will has been admitted to probate but it was necessary for the administrator to report only that the terms of the will had been carried out. It was not necessary for him to know the identity of the bill holder.

Dodgers Grab NL Lead as Giants Fumble

Frisco Crew Hurting As Los Angeles Power Begins To Take Hold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was Los Angeles and Milwaukee who were hit hard by injury, but it's the San Francisco Giants who are hurtin', blowing a 2½-game lead and giving up the National League lead to the Dodgers.

Los Angeles, winning four of six with slugger Gil Hodges sidelined, hit the top for the first time since May 12 Wednesday night, beating Pittsburgh 2-0 as Roger Craig's six-hitter tumbled the Pirates to their ninth straight loss.

That left the Giants, losing four in a row for the first time this season in a 3-1 defeat by last place Philadelphia, a half-game behind the Dodgers and only a half-game ahead of Milwaukee. The third place Braves, who had been without homer-hammering Eddie Mathews for seven games, closed in with an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Cincinnati whipped St. Louis 9-2 in the other NL game.

With Hodges, their home run leader, out with a bum ankle, the Dodgers clipped the Bucs and Vern Law (11-7) in the eighth inning on a two-out single by .230-hitter Joe Pignatano and a double by .169-hitter Don Zimmer. The Dodgers had been blanked on four hits by Law until Duke Snider's single and a walk opened the eighth.

Craig, the right-hander, who helped boost the Dodgers to their only world championship as a mid-season rookie in 1955, now has a 6-2 record since being reclaimed from the minors last month.

The Braves, regaining Mathews for the first time since he injured his hip a week ago, beat the Cubs in a home run duel between Hank Aaron and Ernie Banks. Both hammered a pair. Aaron drove in the Braves' first three runs against loser Dave Hillman (5-8) with his 25th and 26th. Banks, tying Mathews for the NL lead with 29, drove in the Cubs' first four runs against Lew Burdette (14-10), who needed Don McMahon's hitless, three-inning mop-up after Sammy Taylor's solo homer in the seventh.

How hot is hot? Well, the two pennant races are hot, what with rain and a rookie giving Chicago's White Sox a one-game edge in the American League and Los Angeles taking a half-game lead in the National.

But the Kansas City A's? Man, they're blazin', rolling up 10 straight for a winning streak that hasn't been topped in the AL since mid-1956. It's jumped them from last to within a half-game of third.

They did it with a 5-4 victory over Washington Wednesday night that plunked the Senators into the cellar with 11 straight losses, tops among the worst in the majors this season.

No team has had a better winning string than the A's in the AL since the New York Yankees won 11 straight in '56.

The White Sox padded their slim edge when rain and the Yankees held them to a 4-4, six-inning tie after rookie Al Schroll had pitched Boston out of the cellar with a six-hitter for a 4-1 victory over second-place Cleveland. It was Schroll's first complete game in the majors and ended Cal McLish's winning streak at eight.

Third-place Baltimore beat Detroit 5-1 in the only day game.

Are Birthdays Keys to Wins For Redlegs?

CINCINNATI (AP) — Maybe Manager Fred Hutchinson is scanning birth records of the Cincinnati Reds to see if any of the players have a birthday coming up.

If there are, it's very likely they'll be used tonight when the Reds close a four-game series against St. Louis.

Jerry Lynch was 29 on July 17. The night before, against the Cardinals, he celebrated by getting four hits, including a home run, and four RBI as Cincinnati won, 7-5.

Pitcher Joe Nuxhall, who has been getting his lumps this year, was 31 today. Wednesday night he too did a little premature celebrating. Against those same Cards he got his first pitching victory since June 4. Score was 9-2.

Joe, who had lost six straight, allowed seven hits, struck out three and walked only one.

He never was in serious trouble after the first inning.

The victory left the Reds only a game behind the sixth place Cards.

Nuxhall had to be good because from the third inning until the eighth he had only a 3-2 lead.

The Cards, in the top of the eighth, however, lifted their starter Larry Jackson for a pinch hitter. In its half Cincinnati blew the game apart with six runs off relievers Lindy McDaniel and Jack Urban.

1st National Edges Plastic; Elks Win Second Over Purina

The Elks snapped off a last inning Ralston Purina rally to win its second title of the year, 9-8, and First National edged Lincoln Plastic in the seventh stanza of their tie ball game of Monday, 12-9, to regain first place in Little League action at Ted Lewis Park last night.

The First National - Plastic contest was called at the end of six innings Monday after Plastic tied up the game in the bottom of the sixth. It trailed 8-5 going into the final frame.

Last night Buddy Strehle put down Plastic with two strike outs in the remaining sixth innings and then proceeded to smack a two-run homer in the top of the seventh.

Tom Strous walked, stole third and was driven home by Cupp's single. Cupp stole home a few seconds later for the First National margin.

• • •

PLASTIC managed one run in the bottom of the final inning as Merle Bethle cracked a double and scored while National was putting out Sheldon McManies. Strehle fanned Tom Goeller to end the game.

By virtue of its win First National moved into a first place minor league tie with Circleville Oil with 3-0 records. Plastic drops to fourth place.

Stoutsville residents dominated First National action as Strehle had a double added to his homer and teammate Sykes, both boys from the Fairfield County community, also poked a double.

Bethel smashed two doubles and teammate Danny Gibbs had one. The Bankers committed four errors and Plastic miscued once. First National outhit Plasti, 15-9.

First National's Strehle had three RBI's and McManies had three for Plastic. D. J. Henry took the loss.

After trailing 4-0 for three innings, the Elks found the range of Purina's Johnny Wardell and took him to task for five runs on six hits.

• • •

THE MINIATURE Elks added two runs in each of the fifth and sixth stanzas. Purina tallied one in the fifth and entered the bottom of the rinal inning behind, 9-5.

A three run rally by Purina was started with a Jim Bowser single and a walk to Craig Lambert. Dave Green relieved starter Bobby Dean and immediately fanned Steve Burger for Purina's second out. Ronnie Seward and Ken Smith lined singles through the box to drive in three runs.

Star hitter Jeff Lutz was up next and Green collected his most important strike out to end the game.

The Elks pounded loser Wardell for 14 hits as Ken Palmer drove in three runs with two doubles. Jeff Ankrom had one RBI with a ringing triple down the first base line.

Jeff Lutz had Purina's only extra base hit, a double. Dean limited Purina to three hits and reliever Green gave up two singles.

Winner Dean fanned nine and walked four. Green whiffed two. Wardell issued three free passes and struck out two. Each team committed two errors.

• • •

ELKS replaced Purina in second place in the majors with a 1-1 record and the Millers drop to third with a 1-2 slate.

Today's topnotch action finds minor league leading Circleville Oil (3-0) facing second place, Ward's Market (2-1) at 5:30 p. m. on the little diamond. The Oilers took Ward's by a 13-8 margin in their first encounter.

Ward's, whose only second round loss has been to rugged First National (4-3) will be out to avenge its defeat. The Oilers Bill Hill will probably face Ward's Jerry Jenkins.

Second National (0-1) meets Savings Bank (0-3) at 5:30 p. m. on the softball diamond. Savings will be after its initial second round win after reigning as co-champion of the first round.

Final game of the evening pits General Electric (1-0) against Kiwanis (0-0) at 7:45 p. m. on the softball diamond. This will be a third round encounter.

Tourney Tilts Rained Out At Jackson

District No. 8 tournament games at Jackson were rained out last night, requiring a change in schedule.

Tests slated last night were Marathon Service Station vs. Western Auto and River Oil vs. New Petersburg. The games will be played tonight.

Friday night Portsmouth Moose takes on Norman's Tavern in the losers' bracket and Dorsey's Restaurant meets the Jackson Merchants in the winners' bracket.

Three games are scheduled Saturday night, with Beagle's Service Station meeting Calvary Lutheran at 6:30 p. m.; Oil and Battery vs. Miller's Cafe at 7:45 p. m.; and Stonerock's TV vs. Penny's Confectionery at 9 p. m.

• • •

MONDAY Oak Hill Garage will meet the winner of the New Petersburg - River Oil test. The second game of the evening will be between the winners of the Dorseys-Jackson Merchant tilt and the Stonerock's TV-Penny's contest.

Stonerock's TV, a 9-5 winner over Oil and Battery Saturday, will be looking for its second tourney decision. River Oil, 4-0 winner over Marathon Service, also will be after win No. 2.

Lancaster Drops From Legion Meet

The Lancaster Deeds Dairy American Legion Post were ousted from the American Legion tournament yesterday, dropping a 2-1 contest to Scioto Post No. 2, Franklin County.

Paul Alspach tossed a four-hitter at Lancaster in the abbreviated five inning contest. Scioto scored the winning run in the final stanza.

This was Lancaster's second loss of the tourney and drops it from further competition. Its first loss was to Cincinnati Hyde Park, made up of members of the former Bently Post, which has won the National American Legion title twice.

Circleville's Joe Adkins lost the Hyde Park game, twirling a two-hitter, but five errors beind him gave Hyde Park a 4-1 victory. Lancaster outhit Cincinnati, 5-2, but poor support ruined Lancaster's and Adkins' chances of victory.

• • •

ADKINS finished the season with a 5-3 slate for the Fairfield Countians. He hurled Lancaster to its district title over McArthur, fanning 17 and allowing five hits.

Lancaster won the McArthur game, 7-0, and ended its exhibition season with a 26-8 reord. Adkins' three losses were to Cincinnati Hyde Park and Western Hills and to Newark.

Cal Ellis, Knollwood Village, played shortstop for Lancaster and finished the year with a .237 batting average.

Casey Loses His Usual Biting Tongue

CHICAGO (AP)—Casey Stengel still talks a blue streak, but the emphasis is on the blue.

The bandy-legged little skipper of the New York Yankees celebrates his 69th birthday today.

The best gift he could get would be a victory over the league-leading Chicago White Sox as the teams end a three-game set. He says he isn't planning any partying.

Casey, still holds court in the dugout before a game, but his one-time rapier jibes at "them other fellas in the league" and his keenedged jokes are missing. He's playing it straight - faced, and that's not the ol' Case.

He talks about his injured players, a decision or so of an umpire whom he blames for costing him a game, how he is thinking of bringing up an infielder to help a sagging spot, of little things that never went right.

If Casey want's to pick out something brighter to chat about it could be his old standby, Yogi Berra. Yogi is on a hitting spree, hammering a double and a two-run homer Wednesday night. The homer in the top of the sixth tied the score 4-4 and left it locked that way until rain washed out the game after six full innings.

Blaze Hanover Easily Wins $113,812 Trot

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Blaze Hanover, a likely candidate for the 1960 Hambletonian, showed the Yonkers Raceway fans his big kick Wednesday night in the $113,812 Hilltop Trot.

Tonight, the 2-year-old pacers, who may be among those contesting the 1960 Little Brown Jug and other classics for the 3-year-old sidewheelers, will take a crack at the $123,712 Empire Pace. The triple entry of Jan Hanover, Swain and Kashworthy from Billy Haughton's stable is the 8-5 choice.

The Hilltop Trot was the richest race ever staged for the juveniles. Eight young trotters started and Blaze Hanover, pulled away at the finish to beat Willowood by 1½ lengths.

Blaze Hanover, a chestnut son of Hoot Mon-Beverly Hanover, scored his fifth straight victory and earned $62,596, boosting his total to $81,594. The colt is owned by the S. A. Camp Farms.

Blaze Hanover's time for the mile was 2:08 1-5. Newport Mercury, who held the lead part of the way, finished third. The winner, an odds-on choice, paid $3.30.

Don Paul Says Retirement Set

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Defensive halfback Don Paul has spiked a hope he might delay his announced retirement from the Cleveland Browns for one more season.

Paul said he is leaving Aug. 10 to work in San Francisco for a paper company which has been employing him at Erie, Pa.

"I thought I was going to be able to play, but I just couldn't pass up this opportunity," Paul said.

The Browns learned Wednesday that an injury to Mike McCormack's knee in a recent drill probably will sideline the offensive tackle four to six weeks.

The training camp squad was reduced by two Wednesday when Lambert Reed, defensive tackle from Morris Brown, and Don Comstock, a back from Alabama, departed.

3 New Measures Affect Sportsmen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Legislature passed more than a score of measures affecting the Department of Natural Resources, but there are three which sportsmen will find of immediate interest.

These include the Quail Act, which permits hunting of bobwhite for the first time in 46 years. The other two relate to boating on lakes and streams. One stiffens regulations of watercraft by enacting navigational laws to assure safe operation. The third orders the numbering and identification of all boats and reporting of all boating accidents.

GE-Kiwanis Battle To 5-5 Deadlock

General Electric and Kiwanis battled tooth and nail to a 5-5 deadlock in nine innings of play in Babe Ruth baseball competition last night.

The game finally was called at the end of nine in order that another game could be played on the diamond. The knotted game will be played off next week, with the contest resuming in the top of the tenth inning.

The two teams will go at it again tonight in a regular scheduled third round game. The tilt starts at 7:45.

Kiwanis, aware that it could sew up the second round with a win last night, zoomed to a lightning-quick 4-0 lead in the first inning. GE, determined to pull the test out of the fire, scored twice in the third and then went ahead, 5-4, with three runs in an explosive sixth.

• • •

THE KIWANIS sluggers were far from finished as they put together a rally in the seventh to score a single run and push the count into a 5-5 deadlock. Both teams threatened in the last two frames, but could not get an all-important marker across.

Kiwanis got off to a good start in the first when Garold Dade unloaded a perfect squeeze bunt with the bases loaded, sending Jack Cook across the plate. Joe Calihan swiped home on the next pitch and Richard Dean smashed a double to bring in two more tallies. Four of the seven hits allowed by big Sam Weller were collected in this inning.

GE retaliated with back-to-back doubles by Weller and Jim Wellington and a single by Ronnie Clifton to get two runs in the third. Three more tallies were picked up in the sixth on three walks and a single by Wellington.

Cook kept Kiwanis in the game in the seventh after getting on by a walk. He reached second on an error and came home on a high throw to first on Dade's grounder.

Weller went the distance for GE, faning eight and walking seven. Chuck Spangler started for Kiwanis, but was relieved by Wendell Lovett, Dean and Calihan in that order.

The two teams will resume their grueling battle tonight, with each hoping to get a third round win. The entire season to date has been a see-saw affair for both outfits.

They tied for the first round title and still have to play off last night's game before the second round crown can be decided. If the Kiwanians win the playoff of last night's game, they will own the second round championship. If GE wins, another game will be required to decide the round.

Dodgers Grab NL Lead as Giants Fumble

Frisco Crew Hurting As Los Angeles Power Begins To Take Hold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was Los Angeles and Milwaukee who were hit hard by injury, but it's the San Francisco Giants who are hurtin', blowing a 2½-game lead and giving up the National League lead to the Dodgers.

Los Angeles, winning four of six with slugger Gil Hodges sidelined, hit the top for the first time since May 12 Wednesday night, beating Pittsburgh 2-0 as Roger Craig's six-hitter tumbled the Pirates to their ninth straight loss.

That left the Giants, losing four in a row for the first time this season in a 3-1 defeat by last place Philadelphia, a half-game behind the Dodgers and only a half-game ahead of Milwaukee. The third place Braves, who had been without homer-hammering Eddie Mathews for seven games, closed in with an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Cincinnati whipped St. Louis 9-2 in the other NL game.

With Hodges, their home run leader, out with a bum ankle, the Dodgers clipped the Bucs and Vern Law (11-7) in the eighth inning on a two-out single by .230-hitter Joe Pignatano and a double by .169-hitter Don Zimmer. The Dodgers had been blanked on four hits by Law until Duke Snider's single and a walk opened the eighth.

Craig, the right-hander, who helped boost the Dodgers to their only world championship as a mid-season rookie in 1955, now has a 6-2 record since being reclaimed from the minors last month.

The Braves, regaining Mathews for the first time since he injured his hip a week ago, beat the Cubs in a home run duel between Hank Aaron and Ernie Banks. Both hammered a pair. Aaron drove in the Braves' first three runs against loser Dave Hillman (5-8) with his 25th and 26th. Banks, tying Mathews for the NL lead with 29, drove in the Cubs' first four runs against Lew Burdette (14-10), who needed Don McMahon's hitless, three-inning mop-up after Sammy Taylor's solo homer in the seventh.

How hot is hot? Well, the two pennant races are hot, what with rain and a rookie giving Chicago's White Sox a one-game edge in the American League and Los Angeles taking a half-game lead in the National.

But the Kansas City A's? Man, they're blazin', rolling up 10 straight for a winning streak that hasn't been topped in the AL since mid-1956. It's jumped them from last to within a half-game of third.

They did it with a 5-4 victory over Washington Wednesday night that plunked the Senators into the cellar with 11 straight losses, tops among the worst in the majors this season.

No team has had a better winning string than the A's in the AL since the New York Yankees won 11 straight in '56.

The White Sox padded their slim edge when rain and the Yankees held them to a 4-4, six-inning tie after rookie Al Schroll had pitched Boston out of the cellar with a six-hitter for a 4-1 victory over second-place Cleveland. It was Schroll's first complete game in the majors and ended Cal McLish's winning streak at eight.

Third-place Baltimore beat Detroit 5-1 in the only day game.

Are Birthdays Keys to Wins For Redlegs?

CINCINNATI (AP) — Maybe Manager Fred Hutchinson is scanning birth records of the Cincinnati Reds to see if any of the players have a birthday coming up.

If there are, it's very likely they'll be used tonight when the Reds close a four-game series against St. Louis.

Jerry Lynch was 29 on July 17. The night before, against the Cardinals, he celebrated by getting four hits, including a home run, and four RBI as Cincinnati won, 7-5.

Pitcher Joe Nuxhall, who has been getting his lumps this year, was 31 today. Wednesday night he too did a little premature celebrating. Against those same Cards he got his first pitching victory since June 4. Score was 9-2.

Joe, who had lost six straight, allowed seven hits, struck out three and walked only one.

He never was in serious trouble after the first inning.

The victory left the Reds only a game behind the sixth place Cards.

Nuxhall had to be good because from the third inning until the eighth he had only a 3-2 lead.

The Cards, in the top of the eighth, however, lifted their starter Larry Jackson for a pinch hitter. In its half Cincinnati blew the game apart with six runs off relievers Lindy McDaniel and Jack Urban.

1st National Edges Plastic; Elks Win Second Over Purina

The Elks snapped off a last inning Ralston Purina rally to win its second title of the year, 9-8, and First National edged Lincoln Plastic in the seventh stanza of their tie ball game of Monday, 12-9, to regain first place in Little League action at Ted Lewis Park last night.

The First National - Plastic contest was called at the end of six innings Monday after Plastic tied up the game in the bottom of the sixth. It trailed 8-5 going into the final frame.

Last night Buddy Strehle put down Plastic with two strike outs in the remaining sixth innings and then proceeded to smack a two-run homer in the top of the seventh.

Tom Strous walked, stole third and was driven home by Cupp's single. Cupp stole home a few seconds later for the First National margin.

• • •

PLASTIC managed one run in the bottom of the final inning as Merle Bethle cracked a double and scored while National was putting out Sheldon McManies. Strehle fanned Tom Goeller to end the game.

By virtue of its win First National moved into a first place minor league tie with Circleville Oil with 3-0 records. Plastic drops to fourth place.

Stoutsville residents dominated First National action as Strehle had a double added to his homer and teammate Sykes, both boys from the Fairfield County community, also poked a double.

Bethel smashed two doubles and teammate Danny Gibbs had one. The Bankers committed four errors and Plastic miscued once. First National outhit Plasti, 15-9.

First National's Strehle had three RBI's and McManies had three for Plastic. D. J. Henry took the loss.

After trailing 4-0 for three innings, the Elks found the range of Purina's Johnny Wardell and took him to task for five runs on six hits.

• • •

THE MINIATURE Elks added two runs in each of the fifth and sixth stanzas. Purina tallied one in the fifth and entered the bottom of the rinal inning behind, 9-5.

A three run rally by Purina was started with a Jim Bowser single and a walk to Craig Lambert. Dave Green relieved starter Bobby Dean and immediately fanned Steve Burger for Purina's second out. Ronnie Seward and Ken Smith lined singles through the box to drive in three runs.

Star hitter Jeff Lutz was up next and Green collected his most important strike out to end the game.

The Elks pounded loser Wardell for 14 hits as Ken Palmer drove in three runs with two doubles. Jeff Ankrom had one RBI with a ringing triple down the first base line.

Jeff Lutz had Purina's only extra base hit, a double. Dean limited Purina to three hits and reliever Green gave up two singles.

Winner Dean fanned nine and walked four. Green whiffed two. Wardell issued three free passes and struck out two. Each team committed two errors.

• • •

ELKS replaced Purina in second place in the majors with a 1-1 record and the Millers drop to third with a 1-2 slate.

Today's topnotch action finds minor league leading Circleville Oil (3-0) facing second place, Ward's Market (2-1) at 5:30 p. m. on the little diamond. The Oilers took Ward's by a 13-8 margin in their first encounter.

Ward's, whose only second round loss has been to rugged First National (4-3) will be out to avenge its defeat. The Oilers Bill Hill will probably face Ward's Jerry Jenkins.

Second National (0-1) meets Savings Bank (0-3) at 5:30 p. m. on the softball diamond. Savings will be after its initial second round win after reigning as co-champion of the first round.

Final game of the evening pits General Electric (1-0) against Kiwanis (0-0) at 7:45 p. m. on the softball diamond. This will be a third round encounter.

Tourney Tilts Rained Out At Jackson

District No. 8 tournament games at Jackson were rained out last night, requiring a change in schedule.

Tests slated last night were Marathon Service Station vs. Western Auto and River Oil vs. New Petersburg. The games will be played tonight.

Friday night Portsmouth Moose takes on Norman's Tavern in the losers' bracket and Dorsey's Restaurant meets the Jackson Merchants in the winners' bracket.

Three games are scheduled Saturday night, with Beagle's Service Station meeting Calvary Lutheran at 6:30 p. m.; Oil and Battery vs. Miller's Cafe at 7:45 p. m.; and Stonerock's TV vs. Penny's Confectionery at 9 p. m.

• • •

MONDAY Oak Hill Garage will meet the winner of the New Petersburg - River Oil test. The second game of the evening will be between the winners of the Dorseys-Jackson Merchant tilt and the Stonerock's TV-Penny's contest.

Stonerock's TV, a 9-5 winner over Oil and Battery Saturday, will be looking for its second tourney decision. River Oil, 4-0 winner over Marathon Service, also will be after win No. 2.

Lancaster Drops From Legion Meet

The Lancaster Deeds Dairy American Legion Post were ousted from the American Legion tournament yesterday, dropping a 2-1 contest to Scioto Post No. 2, Franklin County.

Paul Alspach tossed a four-hitter at Lancaster in the abbreviated five inning contest. Scioto scored the winning run in the final stanza.

This was Lancaster's second loss of the tourney and drops it from further competition. Its first loss was to Cincinnati Hyde Park, made up of members of the former Bently Post, which has won the National American Legion title twice.

Circleville's Joe Adkins lost the Hyde Park game, twirling a two-hitter, but five errors behind him gave Hyde Park a 4-1 victory. Lancaster outhit Cincinnati, 5-2, but poor support ruined Lancaster's and Adkins' chances of victory.

• • •

ADKINS finished the season with a 5-3 slate for the Fairfield Countians. He hurled Lancaster to its district title over McArthur, fanning 17 and allowing five hits.

Lancaster won the McArthur game, 7-0, and ended its exhibition season with a 26-8 record. Adkins' three losses were to Cincinnati Hyde Park and Western Hills and to Newark.

Cal Ellis, Knollwood Village, played shortstop for Lancaster and finished the year with a .237 batting average.

Casey Loses His Usual Biting Tongue

CHICAGO (AP)—Casey Stengel still talks a blue streak, but the emphasis is on the blue.

The bandy-legged little skipper of the New York Yankees celebrates his 69th birthday today.

The best gift he could get would be a victory over the league-leading Chicago White Sox as the teams end a three-game set. He says he isn't planning any partying.

Casey, still holds court in the dugout before a game, but his one-time rapier jibes at "them other fellas in the league" and his keenedged jokes are missing. He's playing it straight - faced, and that's not the ol' Case.

He talks about his injured players, a decision or so of an umpire whom he blames for costing him a game, how he is thinking of bringing up an infielder to help a sagging spot, of little things that never went right.

If Casey want's to pick out something brighter to chat about it could be his old standby, Yogi Berra. Yogi is on a hitting spree, hammering a double and a two-run homer Wednesday night. The homer in the top of the sixth tied the score 4-4 and left it locked that way until rain washed out the game after six full innings.

New York's world champions now are 10 games off the pace.

Vees Remain In Title Role

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Richmond Vees aren't giving an inch in that battle for second place in the International League. Frank Leja is seeing to that.

The big first baseman led the Vees to victory over Rochester, 10-6, Wednesday night while Havana defeated Montreal, 3-1. Both are tied for second, 8½ games behind Buffalo, which beat Columbus 12-8. Miami defeated Toronto 6-5 in 11 innings.

Leja homered Tuesday night to spark the Vees to a victory and this time teamed with Bob Deakin, each getting a pair of two-run homers.

Buffalo zoomed to an 11-0 lead after two innings with Ken Leman (8-6) getting the victory over the Jets' Al Jackson (7-3).

Clear consomme was the original idea of King Louis XIV. He ordered his chef to make a soup so clear that it would also serve as a mirror for his face.

Vees Remain In Title Role

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Richmond Vees aren't giving an inch in that battle for second place in the International League. Frank Leja is seeing to that.

The big first baseman led the Vees to victory over Rochester, 10-6, Wednesday night while Havana defeated Montreal, 3-1. Both are tied for second, 8½ games behind Buffalo, which beat Columbus 12-8. Miami defeated Toronto 6-5 in 11 innings.

Leja homered Tuesday night to spark the Vees to a victory and this time teamed with Bob Deakin, each getting a pair of two-run homers.

Buffalo zoomed to an 11-0 lead after two innings with Ken Leman (8-6) getting the victory over the Jets' Al Jackson (7-3).

Clear consomme was the original idea of King Louis XIV. He ordered his chef to make a soup so clear that it would also serve as a mirror for his face.

"It's a puzzle to me, too; but they go through married life without a cross word."

Baseball Bosses Get Word: Don't Roadblock 3rd Loop

WASHINGTON (AP) — American and National League clubs have been told that Congress will be forced to act if they throw any roadblocks into the organization path of a third major baseball league.

That word from Sen. John Carroll (D-Colo) came after Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick had pledged full support of the present major leagues for formation of a third circuit.

The subject of the projected Continental League came up Wednesday while Frick was testifying before the Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee. The subcommittee is studying bills that would clarify the status of pro baseball, football, basketball and hockey under the antitrust laws.

Frick supported a measure that would exempt such pro practices as the player draft and contract reserve clauses from the antitrust laws. The strictly commercial aspects of the sports would be subject to those laws under the bill.

Frick said he favored formation of another big league, adding it will not be simple or easy but will take "planning and scheming to bring it about."

Frick asked that baseball be left to work out the problem without interference from Congress.

Sens. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) asked where the new league would get its players. He has contended the major league teams have tied up many more players than they need and has proposed an 80-player limit for each club.

Frick said the new league would have all development rights now available to present clubs, adding they will acquire draft rights and rights of waivers, to negotiate, trade and purchase contracts and to have working agreements with minor league clubs, he added he believed that with a development program there would be ample player talent within a few years to support a third big league.

Art Wall Aims For Golf Peak

Winning of PGA Test Is His Present Goal

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Slim and silent Art Wall Jr., a man with bitter memories of his struggling past, strives for the summit of his golfing career in the national PGA championship opening today.

The 35-year-old Pennsylvania wasn't the favorite. No player could carry that designation in a bulging field of 174 that included more stars than ever assembled in 41 years of Professional Golfers Assn. competition.

But tournament pros invariably tossed Wall's name among the four or five most logical choices. And if Wall wins the 72-hole run at Minneapolis Golf Course, he virtually elects himself golfer of the year.

In seven months he has carted away some $50,000 in prize money, won four tournaments including the Masters and pulled into the lead in the Ryder Cup standings and the Vardon Trophy race based on average scoring.

At the 6,850-yard par 35-35—70 Minneapolis course his big bugbear may be the thinness of the fairways. Wall's baseball grip has made him a novelty, and also a big money winner, but it leads him to occasional spasms of wildness.

Also well liked in the pre-tournament guessing here was Mike Souchak, the amiable muscleman who is still looking for his first major tournament victory.

Dow Finsterwald, winner of the PGA's first medal tournament last year, has not been at his best this year. But he has to rank among the strongest contenders. So do Gene Little, Sam Snead, Doug Ford, Cary Middlecoff and Tommy Bolt.

Boysaw Collects Unanimous Nod

CLEVELAND (AP) — Unbeaten Solomon Boysaw moved up in the lightweight standings with a unanimous 10-round decision over Gabriel Elorde of the Philippines Wednesday night.

The Cleveland buzzsaw admitted he was rusty after a five-month layoff and was slow getting started. But in the final five rounds he found the range with right hand shots to the head and boosted his string to 21 victories and one draw.

A disappointing crowd of 1,058 paid a gross of $1,259 for the nationally-televised lightweight battle.

Referee Lou Parker and Judges Herb Williams and Charley Bill all gave the nod to Boysaw, 48-43.

Elorde, third-ranking featherweight contender, came in at 134 pounds, one pound heavier than Boysaw.

Bosox Toss Roadblocks Against Tribe

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have thrown a pitching roadblock across the Cleveland Indians' pennant path.

For the third straight day, the Bosox introduced a young hurler to the Indians and came away with a victory. First, it was rookie Jerry Casale, then sophomore Billy Monbouquette.

Wednesday night, Al Schroll, a 26-year-old rookie recalled from Minneapolis 10 days ago, halted the Indians on six hits and the Red Sox won, 4-1.

They stopped Cal McLish's eight game winning streak. McLish now has a 13-4 record. He gave up two runs—both on a single by Sammy White in the fourth inning.

White had four of the eight hits McLish surrendered.

The Red Sox added two unearned runs in the ninth inning off relief pitcher Al Cicotte. Both of the markers were unearned as Jim Baxes' error opened the gates. Marty Keough drove in one run and Frank Malzone's sacrifice fly delivered the other.

Malzone was robbed of two home runs as Minnie Minoso came up with two amazing catches to save four runs. Minoso pulled one drive out of the left field seats in the second inning, then leaped halfway over the fence to snare Malzone's other blast with two aboard in the fifth frame.

The only Cleveland run came in the third inning on a single by Ed FitzGerald, a sacrifice and Vic Power's single off Schroll's shins.

McLish lost for the first time since June 7. One of Cal's difficulties was lack of control as he walked five. By comparison, he had walked a total of four in his three previous games.

The Excelsior Knitting Mills, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, is said to be the largest full-fashioned cashmere knitting plant in the world.

Baseball Bosses Get Word: Don't Roadblock 3rd Loop

WASHINGTON (AP) — American and National League clubs have been told that Congress will be forced to act if they throw any roadblocks into the organization path of a third major baseball league.

That word from Sen. John Carroll (D-Colo) came after Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick had pledged full support of the present major leagues for formation of a third circuit.

The subject of the projected Continental League came up Wednesday while Frick was testifying before the Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee. The subcommittee is studying bills that would clarify the status of pro baseball, football, basketball and hockey under the antitrust laws.

Frick supported a measure that would exempt such pro practices as the player draft and contract reserve clauses from the antitrust laws. The strictly commercial aspects of the sports would be subject to those laws under the bill.

Frick said he favored formation of another big league, adding it will not be simple or easy but will take "planning and scheming to bring it about."

Frick asked that baseball be left to work out the problem without interference from Congress.

Sens. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) asked where the new league would get its players. He has contended the major league teams have tied up many more players than they need and has proposed an 80-player limit for each club.

Frick said the new league would have all development rights now available to present clubs, adding they will acquire draft rights and rights of waivers, to negotiate, trade and purchase contracts and to have working agreements with minor league clubs, he added he believed that with a development program there would be ample player talent within a few years to support a third big league.

Art Wall Aims For Golf Peak

Winning of PGA Test Is His Present Goal

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Slim and silent Art Wall Jr., a man with bitter memories of his struggling past, strives for the summit of his golfing career in the national PGA championship opening today.

The 35-year-old Pennsylvania wasn't the favorite. No player could carry that designation in a bulging field of 174 that included more stars than ever assembled in 41 years of Professional Golfers Assn. competition.

But tournament pros invariably tossed Wall's name among the four or five most logical choices. And if Wall wins the 72-hole run at Minneapolis Golf Course, he virtually elects himself golfer of the year.

In seven months he has carted away some $50,000 in prize money, won four tournaments including the Masters and pulled into the lead in the Ryder Cup standings and the Vardon Trophy race based on average scoring.

At the 6,850-yard par 35-35—70 Minneapolis course his big bugbear may be the thinness of the fairways. Wall's baseball grip has made him a novelty, and also a big money winner, but it leads him to occasional spasms of wildness.

Also well liked in the pre-tournament guessing here was Mike Souchak, the amiable muscleman who is still looking for his first major tournament victory.

Dow Finsterwald, winner of the PGA's first medal tournament last year, has not been at his best this year. But he has to rank among the strongest contenders. So do Gene Little, Sam Snead, Doug Ford, Cary Middlecoff and Tommy Bolt.

Bosox Toss Roadblocks Against Tribe

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have thrown a pitching roadblock across the Cleveland Indians' pennant path.

For the third straight day, the Bosox introduced a young hurler to the Indians and came away with a victory. First, it was rookie Jerry Casale, then sophomore Billy Monbouquette.

Wednesday night, Al Schroll, a 26-year-old rookie recalled from Minneapolis 10 days ago, halted the Indians on six hits and the Red Sox won, 4-1.

They stopped Cal McLish's eight game winning streak. McLish now has a 13-4 record. He gave up two runs—both on a single by Sammy White in the fourth inning.

White had four of the eight hits McLish surrendered.

The Red Sox added two unearned runs in the ninth inning off relief pitcher Al Cicotte. Both of the markers were unearned as Jim Baxes' error opened the gates. Marty Keough drove in one run and Frank Malzone's sacrifice fly delivered the other.

Malzone was robbed of two home runs as Minnie Minoso came up with two amazing catches to save four runs. Minoso pulled one drive out of the left field seats in the second inning, then leaped halfway over the fence to snare Malzone's other blast with two aboard in the fifth frame.

The only Cleveland run came in the third inning on a single by Ed FitzGerald, a sacrifice and Vic Power's single off Schroll's shins.

McLish lost for the first time since June 7. One of Cal's difficulties was lack of control as he walked five. By comparison, he had walked a total of four in his three previous games.

The Excelsior Knitting Mills, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, is said to be the largest full-fashioned cashmere knitting plant in the world.

Boysaw Collects Unanimous Nod

CLEVELAND (AP) — Unbeaten Solomon Boysaw moved up in the lightweight standings with a unanimous 10-round decision over Gabriel Elorde of the Philippines Wednesday night.

The Cleveland buzzsaw admitted he was rusty after a five-month layoff and was slow getting started. But in the final five rounds he found the range with right hand shots to the head and boosted his string to 21 victories and one draw.

A disappointing crowd of 1,058 paid a gross of $1,259 for the nationally-televised lightweight battle.

Referee Lou Parker and Judges Herb Williams and Charley Bill all gave the nod to Boysaw, 48-43.

Elorde, third-ranking featherweight contender, came in at 134 pounds, one pound heavier than Boysaw.

Crow Warned Of Possible Prison Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—J. Harvey Crow, twice disbarred lawyer from Urbana, faces a six-month jail term if he attempts further court appearances.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt gave the warning to Crow Wednesday after dismissing bias and prejudice affidavits filed by Crow against Common Pleas Judge John P. Case of Fayette County.

Crow had filed the affidavits to prevent Judge Case from hearing motions by which Crow sought to become a party to two Common Pleas Court actions.

Weygandt said that only a party to a suit or counsel can file such affidavits against a judge and Crow meets neither of these requirements.

Crow claimed he had been assigned a half interest in a $100,000 slander suit by Beverly C. Walls of Urbana against John R. Trace of Washington Court House and a $37,000 malicious prosecution act by William Tumbleson against Walter Noble, both of Bloomingburg.

Turning to Tumbleson, Weygandt added that he should employ some counsel that has not been disbarred.

After Crow's second disbarment in 1957, the State Bar Assn. said he was continuing to practice law. They asked the Supreme Court to find him in contempt.

The high court ordered Crow to surrender his license to practice law or face a six-month jail sentence. Crow mailed in his license July 1.

Judge Drops Suit Against Railroad Union

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers used "an honest approach on a strictly business proposition," in handling mortgages in the depression years of the 1930s, a judge has held in dismissing a 10-year-old suit against the railroad operating union.

Beneficiaries of a former insurance fund had asked that the court reinstate a four-million - dollar mortgage the fund held on the Standard Building and Engineers Building. Their suit also sought $704,489 in alleged profits taken by the Brotherhood from the insurance fund.

Common Pleas Judge J. J. P. Corrigan Wednesday denied both claims and said there was no evidence any defendant wrongfully converted assets or connived to defraud the plaintiffs.

Charles S. Steadman, representing holders of certificates in the Brotherhood's assessment mortuary fund, asserted there were about 12,000 unpaid claims adding up to about six million dollars. He had alleged "breach of trust, missappropriation, misuse and mismanagement."

During the stress of the depression, officers of the union mortgaged again the same buildings on which the insurance fund held mortgages, Steadman alleged.

A DEMOCRATIC ARMISTICE IN WASHINGTON—Chairman Paul M. Butler (left), Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (center), and Speaker Sam Rayburn of the House of Representatives, pose in a three-way handshake after an hour-long conference in Washington, D. C. They agreed that no one was trying to split the Party. The armistice ended three weeks of bitter public and private intra-party warfare between Butler and the Congressional leaders from Texas.

Sen. Young Labels Home Shelter Idea as 'Absurd'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interested in building your own civil defense shelter? Don't, says Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio), the idea, he says, is absurd.

This is the crux of Young's latest attack on what he considers is an absurdity—spending millions of dollars on atomic raid shelters that won't, he feels, save lives.

The proposition of do-it-yourself atomic shelters was recently made by people working for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Rockefeller is a Republican, Young a Democrat. So Young sees reason for pleasure in all this.

Young told the Senate the other day: "May I, as a Democrat confident in the certain election of a Democratic president in 1960, express delight over the prospect that a foremost candidate for the Republican nomination for president apparently now advocates forced civil defense shelters upon American homeowners."

What Young says he regards as silly in shelters for New Yorkers is the fact that millions of people in New York City proper live in apartments.

These New Yorkers, he says, would have scarcely any warning of a missile being fired from Russia (he figures 18 to 20 minutes) and almost none at all if one was fired from a submarine.

Says Young: "I suppose that someone living on the 20th floor of an apartment building would probably, from the time the first warning is given, get down to about the sixth floor before an atomic warhead would explode.

"Even should he survive, there would be a fallout in the neighborhood and throughout the entire area."

Of course, Young says, if the people in New York want to build these shelters at an expense he estimates at two billion dollars they can go ahead and do so.

"If such an expenditure is forced upon taxpayers anywhere there would be no worthwhile result," Young says. "Therefore, I hope no person in Ohio recommends such a waste of taxpayers' money."

Young claims he has evidence that demonstrates some of the authorities in Civil Defense don't take the idea of build-your-own-shelter seriously themselves.

After reading a news story out of Ohio the other day, he triumphantly announced:

"Not one Civil Defense official in Ohio has erected a shelter in his own basement or back yard."

Lightning Kills Boy, Seriously Hurts Woman

CLEVELAND (AP)— Lightning Wednesday killed a Cleveland boy near Sandusky and seriously injured a Mentor woman playing golf in Willoughby. Raymond Ward, 15, was driving a tractor on the farm of Dale Justi six miles south of Sandusky when the lightning killed him.

Mrs. Gordon Wetzel, 33, suffered shock and possible heart damage when a bolt struck her near the 15th green of the Lost Nation course. Her fingertips were burned and her dress ripped down the front. She said a No. 8 iron she was holding grounded the flash.

One-Time Boxer Shot During Police Scuffle

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bobby Berry, 39, a fighter who once stayed on his feet for two rounds against champion Joe Louis in an exhibition bout, was one of two men felled by a single police bullet Wednesday night. A third man was arrested.

The three allegedly attacked Patrolman William Marlowe after he ordered them to disperse. They refused and he arrested them for loitering. The shooting followed. Berry, shot through the chest, was in fair condition. Howard Prechtel, 34, was struck by the same bullet and also in fair condition.

Symington Gets Nod From Ohioans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) topped Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) in a presidential preference poll of Ohio Democratic county officials announced today by Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio).

Of 96 Democratic county chairmen and secretaries who answered questionnaires sent them, Young said 40 picked Symington as first choice for the party's 1960 presidential nomination, compared to 33 for Kennedy.

Nine picked Adlai E. Stevenson and eight chose Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey got three votes, Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California two, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan one and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) none.

Kennedy is regarded as almost certain to enter the Ohio voting even though the primary results are only advisory and not binding. Symington has made it clear he has no present intention of entering any primary contest.

Young's poll showed 49 of the Democratic chairmen and secretaries felt that economic policies—including action on debt, inflation, budget and taxes—would be most important issue in next year's presidential contest. Foreign policy, including the aid program, was picked by 23, national defense by 13 and "a demand for a strong presidential leader" by 11.

Here Is How Ohio Voted On Foreign Aid Bill

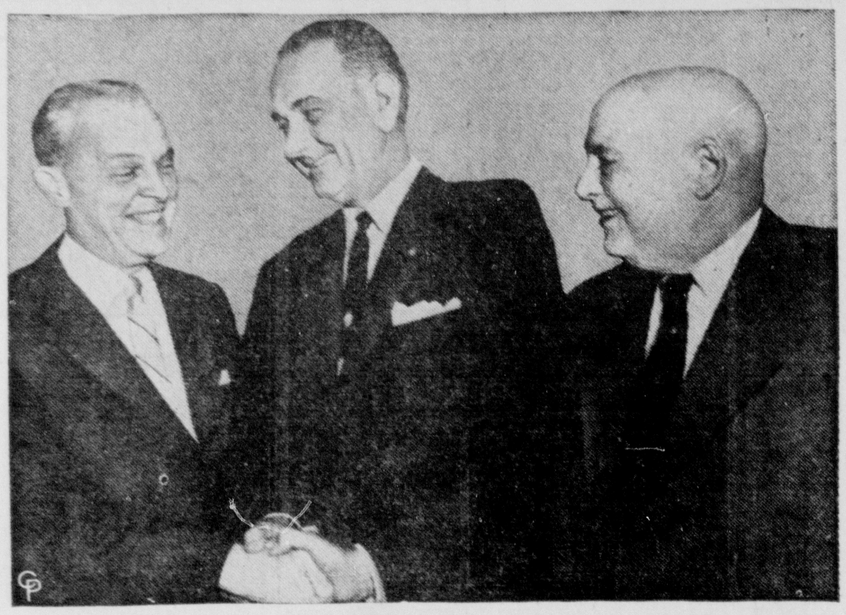
Beneficiaries of a former insurance fund had asked that the court reinstate a four-million - dollar mortgage the fund held on the Standard Building and Engineers Building. Their suit also sought $704,489 in alleged profits taken by the Brotherhood from the insurance fund.

Common Pleas Judge J. J. P. Corrigan Wednesday denied both claims and said there was no evidence any defendant wrongfully converted assets or connived to defraud the plaintiffs.

Charles S. Steadman, representing holders of certificates in the Brotherhood's assessment mortuary fund, asserted there were about 12,000 unpaid claims adding up to about six million dollars. He had alleged "breach of trust, missappropriation, misuse and mismanagement."

During the stress of the depression, officers of the union mortgaged again the same buildings on which the insurance fund held mortgages, Steadman alleged.



A DEMOCRATIC ARMISTICE IN WASHINGTON—Chairman Paul M. Butler (left), Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (center), and Speaker Sam Rayburn of the House of Representatives, pose in a three-way handshake after an hour-long conference in Washington, D. C. They agreed that no one was trying to split the Party. The armistice ended three weeks of bitter public and private intra-party warfare between Butler and the Congressional leaders from Texas.

Sen. Young Labels Home Shelter Idea as 'Absurd'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interested in building your own civil defense shelter? Don't, says Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio), the idea, he says, is absurd.

This is the crux of Young's latest attack on what he considers is an absurdity—spending millions of dollars on atomic raid shelters that won't, he feels, save lives.

The proposition of do-it-yourself atomic shelters was recently made by people working for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Rockefeller is a Republican, Young a Democrat. So Young sees reason for pleasure in all this.

Young told the Senate the other day: "May I, as a Democrat confident in the certain election of a Democratic president in 1960, express delight over the prospect that a foremost candidate for the Republican nomination for president apparently now advocates forced civil defense shelters upon American homeowners."

What Young says he regards as silly in shelters for New Yorkers is the fact that millions of people in New York City proper live in apartments.

These New Yorkers, he says, would have scarcely any warning of a missile being fired from Russia (he figures 18 to 20 minutes) and almost none at all if one was fired from a submarine.

Says Young: "I suppose that someone living on the 20th floor of an apartment building would probably, from the time the first warning is given, get down to about the sixth floor before an atomic warhead would explode.

"Even should he survive, there would be a fallout in the neighborhood and throughout the entire area."

Of course, Young says, if the people in New York want to build these shelters at an expense he estimates at two billion dollars they can go ahead and do so.

"If such an expenditure is forced upon taxpayers anywhere there would be no worthwhile result," Young says. "Therefore, I hope no person in Ohio recommends such a waste of taxpayers' money."

Young claims he has evidence that demonstrates some of the authorities in Civil Defense don't take the idea of build-your-own-shelter seriously themselves.

After reading a news story out of Ohio the other day, he triumphantly announced:

"Not one Civil Defense official in Ohio has erected a shelter in his own basement or back yard."

One-Time Boxer Shot During Police Scuffle

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bobby Berry, 39, a fighter who once stayed on his feet for two rounds against champion Joe Louis in an exhibition bout, was one of two men felled by a single police bullet Wednesday night. A third man was arrested.

The three allegedly attacked Patrolman William Marlowe after he ordered them to disperse. They refused and he arrested them for loitering. The shooting followed. Berry, shot through the chest, was in fair condition. Howard Prechtel, 34, was struck by the same bullet and also in fair condition.

Symington Gets Nod From Ohioans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) topped Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) in a presidential preference poll of Ohio Democratic county officials announced today by Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio).

Of 96 Democratic county chairmen and secretaries who answered questionnaires sent them, Young said 40 picked Symington as first choice for the party's 1960 presidential nomination, compared to 33 for Kennedy.

Nine picked Adlai E. Stevenson and eight chose Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey got three votes, Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California two, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan one and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) none.

Kennedy is regarded as almost certain to enter the Ohio voting even though the primary results are only advisory and not binding. Symington has made it clear he has no present intention of entering any primary contest.

Young's poll showed 49 of the Democratic chairmen and secretaries felt that economic policies—including action on debt, inflation, budget and taxes—would be most important issue in next year's presidential contest. Foreign policy, including the aid program, was picked by 23, national defense by 13 and "a demand for a strong presidential leader" by 11.
